dedication

to Ms. Parks

Written and presented at Class Day, on behalf of the Class of 2011,
by Ailyn Pestana

I vividly remember my first day of high school. Specifically, I recall the anxiety I felt as I pushed open the front door and stepped into the next chapter of my life. But I also remember that there, in the center of the lobby, was someone to welcome me and all of us. Later in the morning, that person stood on stage and spoke to all 211 of us freshmen, and she did something I did not expect. She transformed my anxiousness, into excitement for the possibilities. Her presence and her words changed the atmosphere that morning, and they have continually and positively impacted our high school careers since. For her encouraging and committed leadership, the members of the Class of 2011, dedicate the Yearbook to, our Principal, Ms. Emily Parks.

Ms. Parks began her career at Westwood High School as a social studies teacher in 1994. She advised the academic decathlon team and co-founded and coached the girls' indoor track team. In 1999 she became the Dean of Ninth Grade Students. The following year she became the Assistant Principal, and in 2005 she took the helm as Principal. This summer Ms. Parks will become the Westwood Public Schools' Assistant Superintendent. Today we thank her for investing 18 years to serving and shaping Westwood High School, and giving four of those years to our class.

We have a great school. This is a school in which we're nice to one another. We know our teachers care about us, we care about each other, and we're motivated to achieve our best. Ms. Parks has had the leading role in creating the positive environment of our school. She has created a place in which we are all encouraged to thrive.

Eliza Kaplan captured this when she said,

"Ms. Parks has fostered a community where students are motivated and have strong relationships with teachers."

Harry Clapsis said,

"I am now the third student in the Clapsis family to have known Ms. Parks. She has elevated Westwood to one of the best high schools in the state. She has done that, in part, by placing a lot of trust in students, and giving us a lot of freedom. For that, we are very appreciative."

In nominating Ms. Parks for the yearbook dedication, a number of members of the class referred to Ms. Parks' speeches. Since the first of her speeches I heard I've been struck by her eloquence, but even more, by her messages. They often seemed simple, yet, speech after speech, her words never failed to resonate in my mind.

In just a few words, Ms. Parks can get the right message across. After the presentation by the guest speaker for the pre-prom assembly, Ms. Parks stood up and simply said,

"I want you to know that there are people who care about you."

We didn't really need the whole hour assembly; we just needed to hear that. As always, she said exactly what we needed to hear.

Andrea Winn agrees with the power of Ms. Parks' words. She said:

"Ms. Parks has the most inspirational speeches. She knows exactly how to address us to get us to open our eyes to wonderful opportunities, and to better know what we hold."

Her words keep us on track, and keep us dreaming of what's possible.

Beyond her speeches, Ms. Parks encourages us in many ways. She has supported us as a group and as individuals. With her presence in school and at the events that matter to us, she lets us know she cares. Somehow Ms. Parks knows what interests each of us. When she passes us in the halls, she wishes us good luck on game day, says congratulations for a great meet the night before, or compliments us on the artwork exhibited in the hall.

Hani Singer and Believe Opara said,

"She always encourages us to keep up our music."

Alex Jackson said,

"She has always been a support. She is committed to keeping us true to WHS excellence."

Alanna Leahy said,

"Ms. Parks has been an amazing principal and is very involved and personable. She forms relationships with the students and has been part of the reason I had such a great four years."

Thanks to Ms. Parks, we are positioned to walk through the doors of the next chapters of our lives –feeling less anxious, and more excited for the possibilities.

Stephanie Murphy summed it up:

"Ms. Parks deserves the dedication."

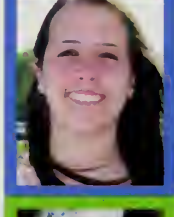

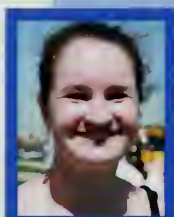

Ms. Parks –

You have created a positive environment in which we can pursue what we love, and achieve our best.

You have inspired us with your caring and eloquent words.

You have supported us as a community and as individuals.

We sincerely thank you.

Legislative Council is comprised of elected representatives of each grade and the faculty. Members have an important role to play in maintaining and improving the school community. The Council reviews Student Handbook policies and proposes changes or additions to it. Some proposals come from the Council members and others are brought by members on behalf of their constituents. Proposals that pass in Council must be approved by the Administration to become part of the WHS Constitution. Proposals debated this year include: junior/senior privileges, use of music players in free blocks, and the change of credits required for students to participate in extra-curricular activities.

Spanish Club

Hola!

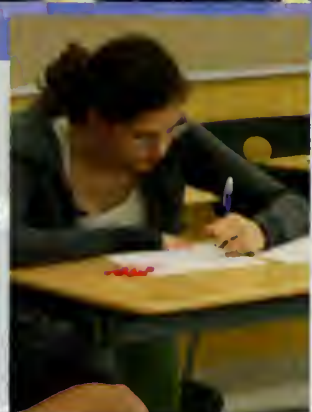

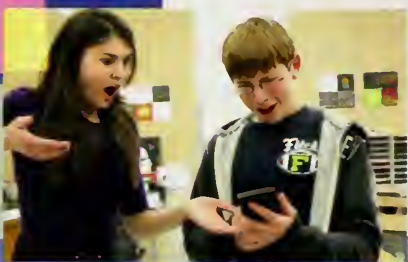

The purpose of Spanish Club is to celebrate Spanish speaking culture, language and people. Most meetings consist of eating, dancing, and exploring Spanish and Latino culture, which is both fun and informative. In addition to the fun activities in school, the club has many outings, such as restaurant excursions. This year the group traveled to Boston to view a Spanish film festival and then, had a Spanish film festival of their own. In the spring Spanish Club members participated in the Scooper Bowl, run by the Jimmy Fund, for whom they'd raised money earlier in the year. This year a new activity for the club was Skyping with students from Mexico and Spain. Generally, the group helps its members explore other cultures and feel more connected to the language they are learning. This club means a lot to its members. They love the atmosphere and the fun things in this club. "Viva Espana!"

Math Team

The purpose of this club is to have fun doing math and to compete with fellow math-lovers from Westwood and other communities at Math Meets. Math Team pushes students to understand math on a deeper level. Typically at meetings members do practice round problems, then Mr. Baylor goes through the problems with them. Club members are from different grades and levels of math experience. The meetings are typically really relaxed and often involve candy and prizes for correct answers! Students improve mathematical knowledge and understanding and try their best in competitions. In the words of one WHS mathlete, "You can never know everything, but we try."

Key Club

Key Club's focus is community service. The Key Club, which is a national organization, is known for helping the communities around which each chapter is centered. It encourages its members to do at least 30 hours of service a year. This year the Westwood Key Club strived to expand volunteer opportunities for the club and its individual members. Members brainstormed service ideas and tried to expand the reach of their time and energy. This year, the group organized a food drive, collecting non-perishable food donations, to benefit families in need during the winter holiday season. In February, the club sold Valentine carnations to raised money for the Alzheimer's Foundation. They also participated in various fund raising and awareness raising walks, such as the Walk for Diabetes in Boston. Key Club promotes volunteerism and gets people involved in community service, which is both enjoyable and meaningful.

Friendship Club

Friendship Club is a collaboration between WW High School and the TEC class. It provides opportunities for members to develop new friendships and have fun in the process. Typically during a meeting, members go out to the field and play catch with a football, go to the gym to play basketball, play board games in the room, and just have an overall good time. Every year, the goal for the club is to make sure that everyone has fun. The members take part in this club because they like it and enjoy spending their time there. In that sense, they accomplish their goal every time they meet. One senior member of the club said, "Give Friendship Club a chance, and you won't regret it."

Drama Club

The Drama Club provides members with opportunities to informally explore and develop their theatrical talents with a range of activities in a relaxed, welcoming environment. The club began the school year with a series of improvisational workshops in which students practiced creating performances without any preparation. Late in the year members worked in small groups to read and act out short plays. In addition to working on their dramatic skills, some of the club members volunteered together at the Halloween Hikes at Hale Reservation.

Frisbee Club

The goal of the Frisbee Club is to have fun while being active and learning how to play Ultimate Frisbee. At the typical meeting members gather on the practice field and play pick-up until everyone arrives. Teams are then formed and, together, the club scrimmages. It is a fun way for members to hang out with friends or meet new people, and to get exercise while playing the "King of Sports".

Science Team

The Science Team works hard to win its monthly competitions against nearby schools. Members each study and prepare for their chosen event, and their knowledge is then put to the test. During competitions, students try their hardest to win in their events. Every year, they strive to improve their performances at the science meets and get a better ranking than the previous years. Over the years, the Science Team has consistently improved and this year they got 13th place in the Olympiad, a feat never before achieved. Science Team members join the club because they want to challenge themselves and they want to get to know people who share their interest in science.

We the People

We the People is the school's political newspaper. The staff documents important government, environmental, and social events and conflicts that happen on local, national, and international scales. At a typical meeting, the staff brainstorms potential topics for the publication, debates issues, and discusses ideas for the content and layout of the next issue. Members of We the People aim to produce informative and thought provoking articles to broaden the WHS community's understanding of our world.

Ecolibrium

Ecolibrium is an awareness and action club that centers on problems brought about by abuse of the environment. Before the snow fell, the club sponsored a trash pickup along the path frequented by students that runs through the woods behind the middle school. Fifteen students collected approximately forty pounds of trash. The club sponsored a videoconference with controversial environmental activist Pete Bethune, whose work has been documented in the Animal Planet series "Whale Wars". Eco also hosted a lecture by Mr. Holt-house in which he presented arguments in support of the use nuclear energy.

National Honor Society

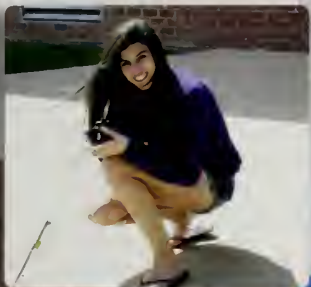

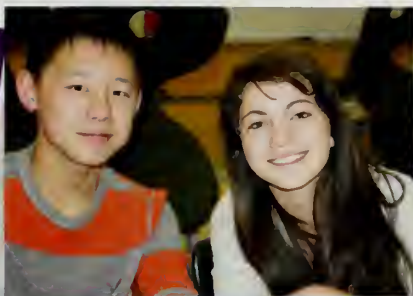

National Honor Society is a national organization that recognizes students for their scholarship, leadership, character, and service. At Westwood High School, students are invited to apply if they have a weighted GPA of 3.5 or higher, and if they exhibit the four core values of NHS. Each member of NHS is expected to complete forty hours of community service. Some of the hours are completed as a group and some are done individually. This year NHS sponsored the annual Red Cross Blood Drive and organized a can and bottle drive. Dr. Zarrow was the invited faculty speaker for the annual induction ceremony this April.

Photography Club

Photography Club welcomes all who are interested in photography from the novice to the expert. The club encompasses kids from every grade and level of experience. Every week the members are assigned a new challenge for their photography - sometimes thematic and sometimes technical. At the next meeting they review the pictures, using the projector, and give constructive criticism. The Photo Club also takes pictures at various events and fundraisers. This year some members of the club exhibited their photographs at the annual "Art and Nature" community art show.

Jazz Band

Jazz Band is an extracurricular activity that meets one night every week. It is a selective band, for which members must audition to be accepted. Led by Ms. Labedz, students perform rock, jazz, funk and other popular music genres. This year they performed at both the spring and winter concerts. Two of their most popular songs are "Honk," and the contemporary swing tune "Zoot Suit Riot". Additionally, Jazz Band performed at Encounters with the Arts, and in Philadelphia, at Hershey Park.

Passing Notes is an a capella (without musical accompaniment) group which is an extension of the chorus class offered in school. Its members are passionate about singing and invest a lot of time into rehearsing interesting, often complex, arrangements of contemporary songs. Passing Notes members push themselves to improve. They compare and contrast their performances by using technology to listening to other musicians' renditions of the same song. Passing Notes performs at school concerts, Encounters with the Arts, and other community events. This year the club achieved one of its goals by doubling the number of its members from the previous year.

The members of Westwood Ambassadors represent the WHS community by welcoming and assisting new students, by acting as role models to the 8th graders and assisting them with plans as they transition to high school. The Ambassadors visited Thurston Middle School in February to help the future freshmen with their course selection. In June, the Ambassadors gave the 8th graders tours of the high school and helped them locate their Summer Reading Groups. Throughout the year, as new students join the WHS community, the Ambassadors plan activities to make them feel welcome.

Anime Club

The Anime Club has fun exploring and sharing anime, which is a Japanese form of cartoon. Anime spans many genres, from silly romantic comedies, to fantasy adventures, to high-tech science fiction. Much of anime deals with "real-life" topics and complex relationships between characters. At Anime Club's Friday meetings, members look at anime publications, draw anime characters and view Japanese shows or popular movies. The growing club's goal for this year was to further enlighten and expose the members to the Japanese culture. Every year Anime Club members take a trip to the Boston Anime Convention, one of the largest in the Northeast area, where participants dress up as their favorite anime character and celebrate all things anime!

Mock Trials

Students on the Mock Trials team compete against other schools in a test of their reasoning and rhetoric skills. All the teams receive the same mock criminal case. The WHS members study and analyze the case, and then students prepare to argue both sides in court. A tremendous amount of work is necessary to prepare for trial. During a typical meeting, students prepare and ask questions of their witnesses for direct or cross-examination. They aim to craft objection-proof questions that get across the points of their arguments. Returning Mock Trials members teach new members all about courtroom procedures and veteran members help everyone to refine their skills. Many members join because they aspire to become lawyers or are interested in law. However, they stay because it's fun and the competition makes it exciting.

Unity Club

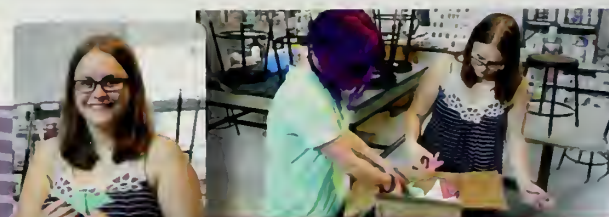

Unity Club is dedicated to promoting the cultural diversity within our school, and within our community. Club members volunteer at several events in and around the Boston area, including the Westwood Chinese Cultural Night. At club meetings students discuss and plan events. Much of the energy goes into preparation for WHS's annual Diversity Week. This year students had a contest to guess the language spoken over the morning announcements for each day during Diversity Week. On Diversity Day, many students set up booths to display items related to their cultural heritage.

Origami Club

The Origami Art Club met every Thursday afternoon to learn and develop skills in origami - the Japanese art of folding paper into decorative shapes and figures. Club members participated in the Art and Nature Exhibit in the fall, then, having learned increasingly more sophisticated designs, led demonstrations and hands-on activities for guests at Encounters with the Arts in March. Students watched the documentary "Between the Folds," which highlights ways that origami bridges art, science and math.

Movie Club

Film enthusiasts founded the Movie Club this year to share their enjoyment of watching movies. They watched a range of films from various time periods and genres, including Alfred Hitchcock's "Psycho" and the recent animated hit, "Kung Foo Panda". In addition to viewing the films, club members react to and talk about the movies they watch and have general discussions about film, such as how film genres have changed as our society has changed.

Ping Pong Club

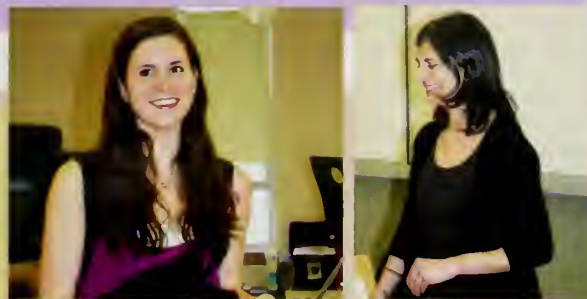

The purpose of the Ping-Pong Club is to get together on a weekly basis and play friendly, yet competitive ping-pong games. It is a low-key way to relax and have fun for players of all abilities. The club typically has a rotation of singles matches and doubles matches going on at the same time depending on the numbers of players. This year's goals were focused on forming a reliable group of members and establishing a routine during the meetings.

Animal Awareness Club

The Animal Awareness Club was founded this year by a group of like-minded students who wanted to generate awareness of issues related to the unkind treatment of animals. In addition to creating a campaign of informational posters, during the holiday season in school, the group collected supplies to benefit animals in need and delivered the donations to the Milton Animal League.

French Club

The French Club celebrates the French language and culture. At meetings they plan all sorts of fun activities that they can do as a group, and try to speak in French while doing so. This year members celebrated a French holiday by eating "galettes" from a French Bakery in Brookline, sold lollipops with French phrases to raise money to send books to a rural school in Senegal, and attended a performance called "Psy" by the Montreal-based dance, circus and acrobatic troupe "Les 7 doigts de la main" at Boston's Cutler Magestic theater.

Dance Team

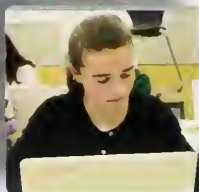

The Dance team choreographs dance pieces and performs them at a variety of events throughout the year, including the fall Pep Rally, the spring Talent Show, and many basketball games. Their dances combine several different styles, including jazz, hip-hop, modern, and step. The team meets weekly to learn and practice their routines and to generally hang out and have fun. Before performances their rehearsals become more intense and they work on refining each move. Since members have diverse backgrounds and levels of experience with dance, they learn a lot from one another.

No Parenthesis

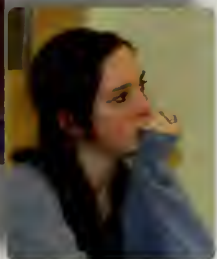

No Parenthesis is Westwood High school's literary and arts magazine. All WHS students are invited to submit poems, essays, short stories, and visual art for the publication. The No Parenthesis staff spends many hours reviewing and editing submissions, and preparing the material for production. This year the staff pioneered an entirely digital magazine format instead of a print piece, as it had been in past years. The staff hopes the digital format will make the magazine accessible to more people, and therefore the impressive works of WHS students will be shared with a broader audience.

Amnesty International

Amnesty International is a group of concerned students dedicated to ending the violation of human rights around the globe and within our own nation. Members learn about the different ways humans are treated within different nations and learn that many people are deprived of the basic rights which citizens in the United States have. The club plans fundraisers and ways to educate their peers about issues. Last year Westwood High School became an official partner school of WISER, a secondary school for girls located in Muhuru Bay, Kenya. The goal is to raise at least $400 a year in order to provide girls with books, boarding, uniforms, and all the essentials needed for their schooling. While raising money Amnesty club members help make Westwood students aware that many children their age are denied the same opportunities as they are.

Oxford Program

In the summer of 2011, a group of honors-level English seniors will travel to England for a six week long study abroad program. Students will take classes at Oxford University - Wadham College, tour the historic buildings and famous locations, and get a feel for the city's culture. They will enroll in 400-level English literature courses worth three transferable college credits. It's sure to be an unforgettable, enjoyable, and educational experience for all participants.

Collegivm Latinvm

In Latin Club members study the ancient world. During meetings members have discussions and debates on broad topics like medicine in the ancient world, Latin mottos on modern coins, and the accuracy of Latin spells in Harry Potter. They try to gain further knowledge of Mediterranean customs and cultural nuances. This year Collegivm Latinvm members traveled to Boston to see an intense performance of "Ajax" by Sophocles, an ancient Greek tragedian. The whimsical atmosphere of the club attracts a diverse group of students, both students who take Latin class and those who don't.

Robotics Team

Each year the Robotics Team designs and builds a robot to compete in the Boston Regional FIRST Logomotion Competition. The club provides an opportunity to learn about mechanisms, software, and electronics in a real-world environment. The team divides up the complex and labor-intensive project so small groups of students, from veterans to beginners, can tackle parts of the functional robot. This year's robot, named Bobby for its bobcat-like appearance, had autonomous programming (the ability to work without human control) and could extend to over nine feet! At the tournament in April, the team won six rounds and lost four, and ultimately ranked 17th out of 53 teams. Robotics advisor, Mr. Holthouse said, "The team dealt capably and professionally with a number of setbacks, including replacing a drive motor in under 12 minutes before a critical match, and repairing some major structural damage in 20 minutes after a hard collision. NASCAR, here we come!"

GSA

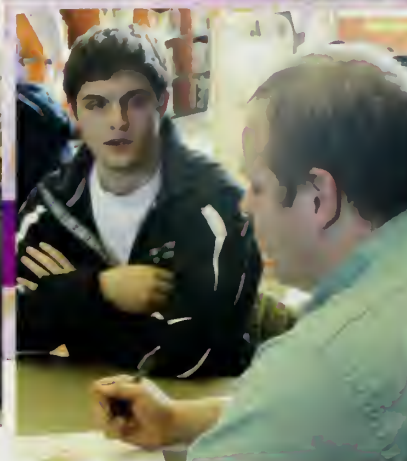

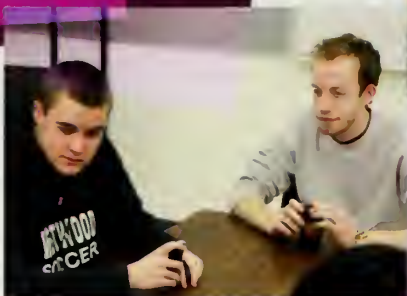

The Gay Straight Alliance promotes acceptance and equal rights for the GLBTQ (Gay/ Lesbian/ Bisexual/ Transsexual/ Questioning) community. During their weekly meetings, they discuss issues and plan activities and events. Early in the year the members of the club made buttons, ribbons, posters, and shirts for the annual Ally Week. In October, as part of a national movement, GSA invited the WHS community to wear purple in remembrance of the LGBTQ youth who have died by suicide and to show our solidarity against bullying and harassment. In the spring GSA organized the Day of Silence, during which students volunteered to be silent for the whole school day as representation of the void and pain created when individuals feel forced to keep quiet about who they really are. Additionally, GSA members participated in area Youth Pride events. GSA aims to provide a happy and safe environment for everyone.

Debate Club

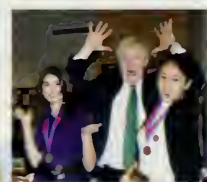

In Debate Club students develop critical thinking and communication skills, and develop the ability to construct effective arguments. This year a small, but dedicated, group met during afternoons in the social studies lab or the library to conduct, compile and compare research in preparation for the debate competitions with other schools' teams. Students delved into issues of current international conflicts and international policies. The team had to prepare for different competition formats including Lincoln-Douglas debates and Massachusetts Forensic League interscholastic debates.

Academic Decathlon

Members of Academic Decathlon compete against teams from across the state, drawing on their knowledge of a wide range of topics from art and music, to history and science. The club prepares for competition in a variety of ways including taking tests, listening to lectures, reading passages, watching videos, or listening to soundtracks. At competitions, in addition to responding to standard test format questions, students compete in speech and interview categories. The goal this year was to make it to States, which the club did (and look at all the hardware they took home!)

Junior Literary Club

Each term students of the Junior Literary Club read a critically acclaimed book, then meet for one afternoon to discuss it in a relaxed environment. The book club is an extension of the literary analysis that students do in English classes and was formed to foster a love of reading. This year the club chose books that would provide readers with unusual and different points of view. Two of the selections were, The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak and Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer. The club presents an open forum for students and encourages them to share their opinions on the wide range of topics that come up in response to what they've read.

Peer Mediators

Peer Mediation aims to reinforce positive relationships and reduce conflict amongst students at WHS. Members are 9th through 12th graders who are selected through and application and interview process. The primary role of the group is to be impartial mediators whenever two or more students have conflicts with each other, therefore many of their meetings focus on team-building activities and learning and improving mediating skills. This year the club aimed to broaden its impact in the community beyond the resolution of conflicts. They developed programs to help prevent conflicts, such as Freshman Seminars in which the Peer Mediators led discussions about cyber-bullying.

Yearbook

The 2011 Green Years Staff dedicated every Wednesday and Friday, monthly "Saturday Sessions" and countless unscheduled hours to designing and producing a record of WHS's shared experiences this year. We have had a blast capturing the moments and memories of the High School community. Regardless of grade level, all staff members worked extremely hard on their individual projects and worked well together sharing technical knowledge, constructive criticism and encouragement. The result is a tightly bonded staff. Listening to Adele and Lady Gaga on repeat, going for runs...that is coffee and snack runs, and laughing over ridiculous things (because we were so tired) are some of the characteristic activities coming from A157 - YB Headquarters. Newcomers always marvel at the amount and complexity of work required to complete the book, but after finalizing projects well and on time, they know what every yearbooker knows - that it's worth it. With hard work, tremendous time, and lots of laughter, the yearbookers pulled off what sometimes seemed an impossible job. We truly hope you enjoy what we've created.

Pink & Green FACEOFF for

Girls' Football

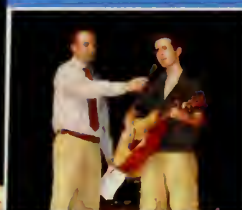

Memories of glory, triumph, and camaraderie were once again forged during this Autumn tradition unlike any other. Pink toppled Green in a well fought game that proved there is no substitute for Senior experience. Despite the final tally of points for juniors and seniors on the scoreboard, it was Wolverine Pride that took home the trophy on this November evening.

Talent Show

This spring Student Council hosted the annual WHS Talent Show. The change of venue to the BIG stage of the Auditorium raised the energy for the show. Mr. Shuman returned (by popular demand) to co-host the festivities with senior A.J. Sadler. It was a big night for musical talent. Performances included a guitar and voice duet by Conor Emerson and Lee Hatfield, an a capella version of Katy Perry's "Fireworks" by Olivia Cawley, Mary Doyle, Alex Jackson, Elena Maimonis, and Elise Blanchard, and a rendition of Rihanna's "All the Lights" by Metro Police. The wackiest display of talent was the act of duo Chris Burke and Brendan McLaughlin who battled to determine who could eat the most lemons!

Winter Chillout

In the last stretch of a long, snowy winter, the Student Services faculty hosted the first Winter Chill Out, a lighthearted approach to dealing with the often-heavy burden of stress. During lunches there were a variety of stations lining the hall to the cafeteria that featured information, hands-on activities and techniques to help students with relaxation, good mental health and stress-management. Some of the activities included yoga, knitting, making beanbag "stress balls", blowing bubbles, and group "laugh therapy".

Diversity Day

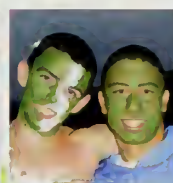

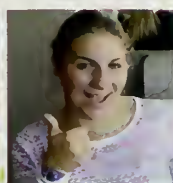

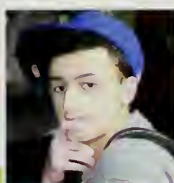

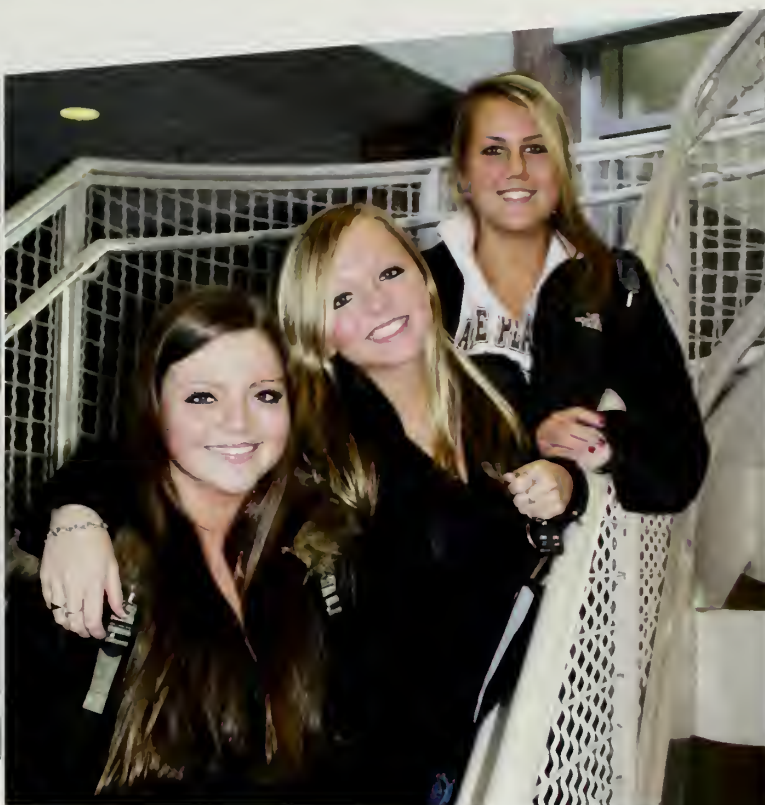

Unity Club organized Diversity Week, in which there were many activities to celebrate the different cultural backgrounds of our student body. During one afternoon, students set up booths in the auditorium lobby to share aspects of their heritage. The varied exhibits featured things such as traditional costumes, music, ceremonial objects, toys, and samples of written language.

WOLVERINES

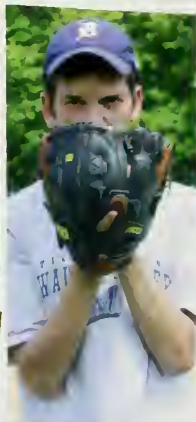

Faculty v Students Field Hockey

The faculty field hockey team returned to Flahive Field for the annual match-up with the official WHS field hockey team. In slick, soggy conditions, both teams gave their all (in the case of the students - skill and athleticism and the faculty - sheer determination) for an increasingly intense hour of play. In the end, a season's worth of preparation and great coaching prevailed with a final score of students 1, faculty 0.

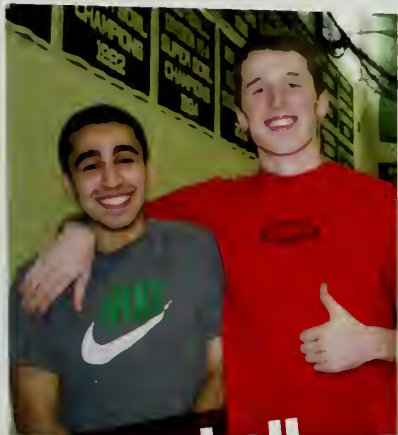

Seniors v Faculty Softball

There were strong performances from both teams in the annual faculty versus seniors softball game. Battling back from a 6-3 deficit, the seniors pulled away from the faculty in the seventh inning and claimed a 10 to 9 victory.

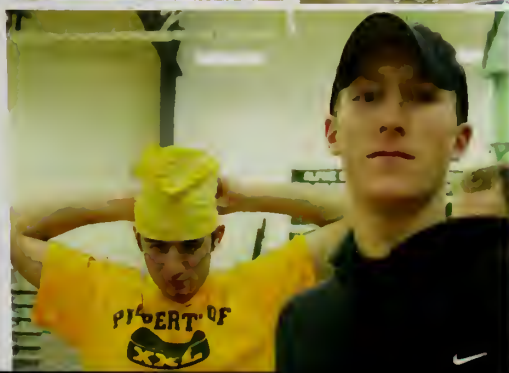

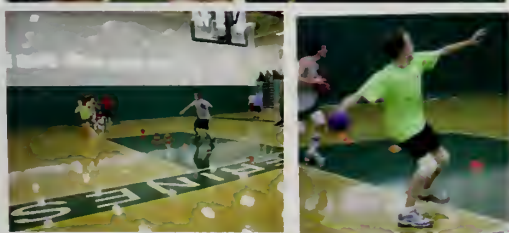

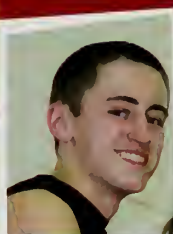

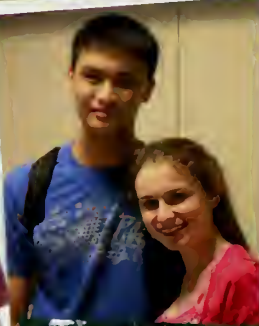

Dodgeball Tournament

The Senior Class Officers organized the first open dodgeball tournament to great response. Twenty teams, including representation from both faculty and students, competed in an intense two-day, two-court series of battles. The tournament title went to the team of Brett Hoffer, John Delsignore, Jessica Burns, Josh Babb, Keelin Henderson, and Kevin Sennott.

Passion for the Game

Interview with Captains Alison Campion, Emily McGrail, and Mary O'Sullivan

Describe a typical practice. We start off with a game of Ninja Assassins while we wait for our coach. When he gets there we warm up, play small possession games and shooting drills, then we sprint and finish with fitness.

Activities the team loves? We love the practices after wins because we play soccer-tennis.

Activities the team dreads? No one likes to sprint, so everyone dreads Wednesday practices that are focused on fitness.

Team Bonding Activities? Ninja Assassins, volleyball, pasta dinners, Making Strides Against Breast Cancer, & shed hopping.

What does Game Day feel like? We usually have a pasta dinner the night before and then do a spirit day to get psyched up. We listen to music on the bus so we don't get too nervous.

What are the routines before your games? We have a specific pre-game warm up routine with our warm-up CD and we have our team huddle, slow clap, and cheer.

Do any individuals on the team have their own pre-game routines? Yes, lots of people have special handshakes and our defense has a group "mental" preparation.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. A turning point in our season was when we came back from a 2-0 deficit against Hopkinton, in the pouring rain and mud, to tie 2-2 in the last four minutes. Our last game was also memorable because we came back from being down 3-2 against Medway and won 4-3 on their senior night to end the season on a win.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? Don't ever take the season for granted and never assume you have something - keep working until you get it.

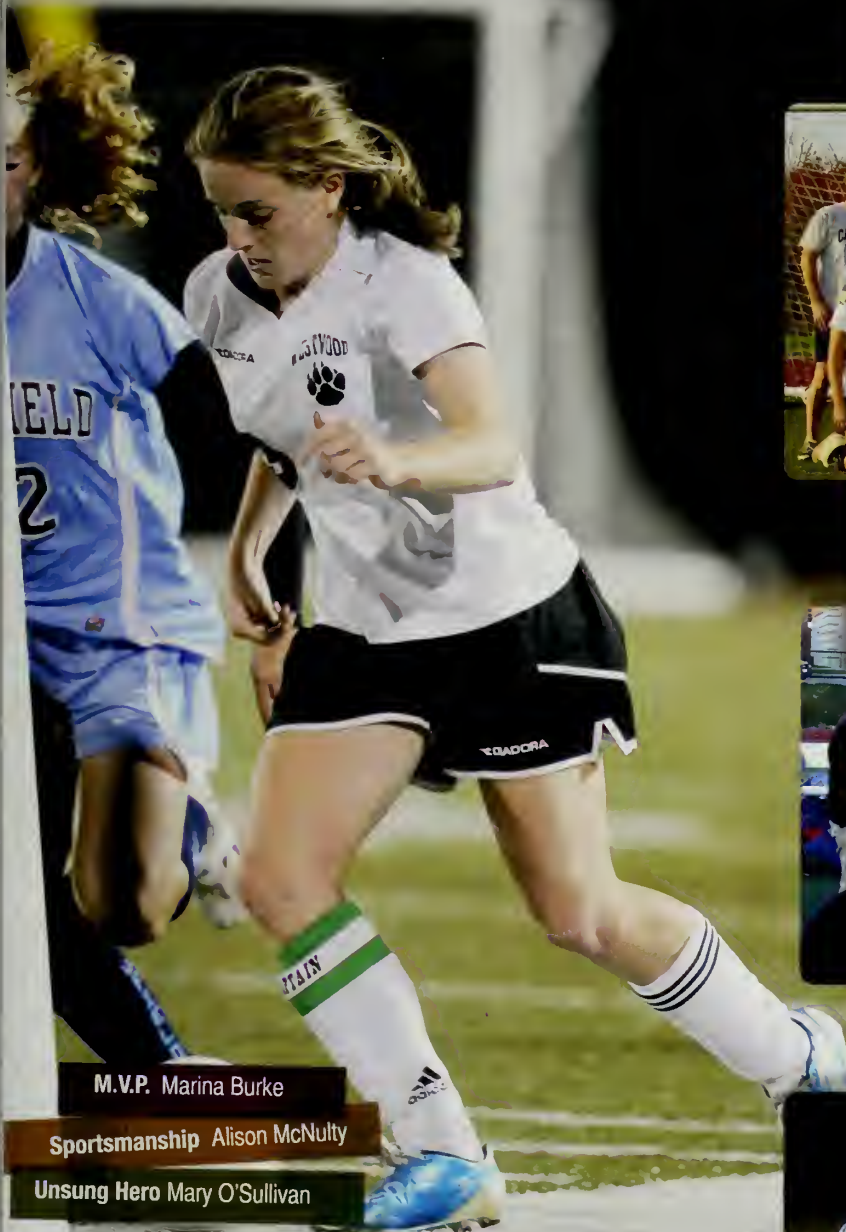

Team song? The seniors' Tacky Tuesday Song

Lucky charm? Visiting the Barn of Dreams

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? It's a physical representation of individual determination and a dedication to the team.

Seniors, what will you miss the most? Our teammates, "dissonance", Barn of Dreams, and all of the fun things we did together.

What is a typical practice like? We do box & ladder drills, sprints, and formation drills

Activities the team loves? Shooting drills, scrimmages, and PK kicks

Activities the team dreads? Box & ladder and circle-drill

Team Bonding Activities? Breakfast at Murph's and Mug & Muffins, and chipping Feldman

What are the routines before the game? The usual pre-game activities are playing the pump-up CD, using noise-cancelling headphones, and listening to "Bohemian Rhapsody".

Do any individuals on the team have their own pre-game routines? ND has an unrevealed routine.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. When Jonathan Harper scored the winning goal from the 40-yard line, in our home game against Medway.

What are your favorite memories about the season?

Story time and McDonald's

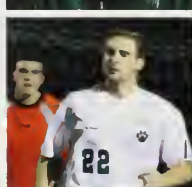

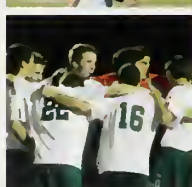

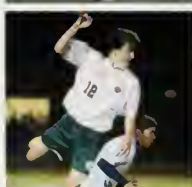

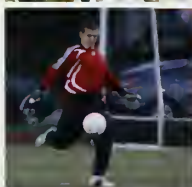

Do you have a team song? "Can't Stop the Rain" by Kropp Circle

What is your lucky charm? Franco

Tell us about your ideas for spirit days.

ND suggested pink and your favorite jersey. Jake always suggested we go naked (and got shot down). Shane usually wanted boat shoes and a polo. Cory came up with the referee idea, and Harper wanted everyone to wear white jerseys.

Seniors, what will you miss the most? Shane Troy: I will really miss being on the team. There will be no more deet circles with Harper, no more 7 a.m. Sunday practices, and no more "classy" ND moments. We'll all miss our teammates in the upcoming years.

Following Through

Interview with senior John Delsignore

Tell us about golf practice. During the season we have two or three matches a week and we play on our own on the weekends. We don't have typical practices because we aren't always able to book courses. A lot of our preparation is done over the summer.

Are there particular drills/activities which the team loves? Or dreads? At the end of the season, we really got into alternate-shot matches. Players compete in pairs and take turns hitting the next shot, so players rely on their teammates. You hate it or love it based on how you and your partner play.

Describe a team-bonding activity. We usually eat as a team after each match. We would sometimes eat at the Norfolk clubhouse during our home matches. It brought the team closer together.

Where do you get ideas for spirit days? John Gebhard's closet.

What does the day of a match feel like? Most matches don't stress us out, but really important rounds can make you nervous. Match day is best spent trying to stay calm and prepared. The only difference at school on match day is that underclassmen have to lug their bags into homeroom and to the van. They hate that.

What are the routines for pre-match? Coach Gillis calls us into the clubhouse, gives us tips for dealing with the course conditions, and tells us what type of round we should shoot for. After a rousing speech from freshman Ned Kelly, we're ready to go.

Do any individuals on the team have pre-game rituals? Adam Sawyer likes to stay loose before the match so he does a little cardio. He runs out on the course and touches every flagstick before returning to the putting green, limber and loose.

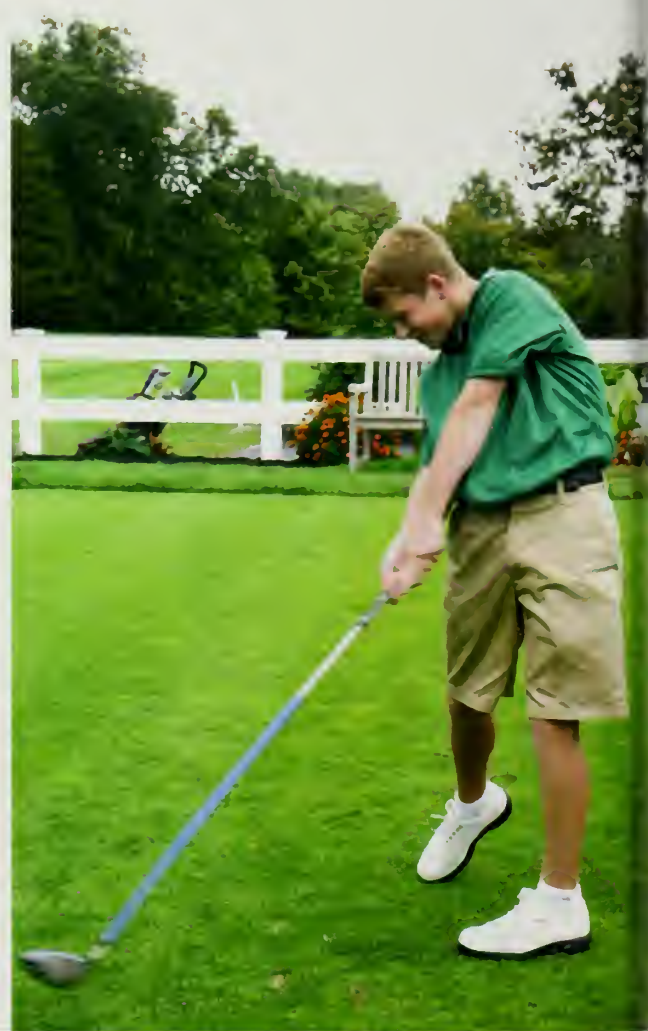

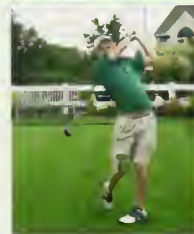

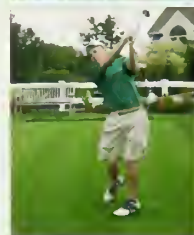

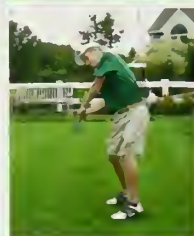

Do you guys have a lucky charm? Pat Frodigh's shiny footwear.

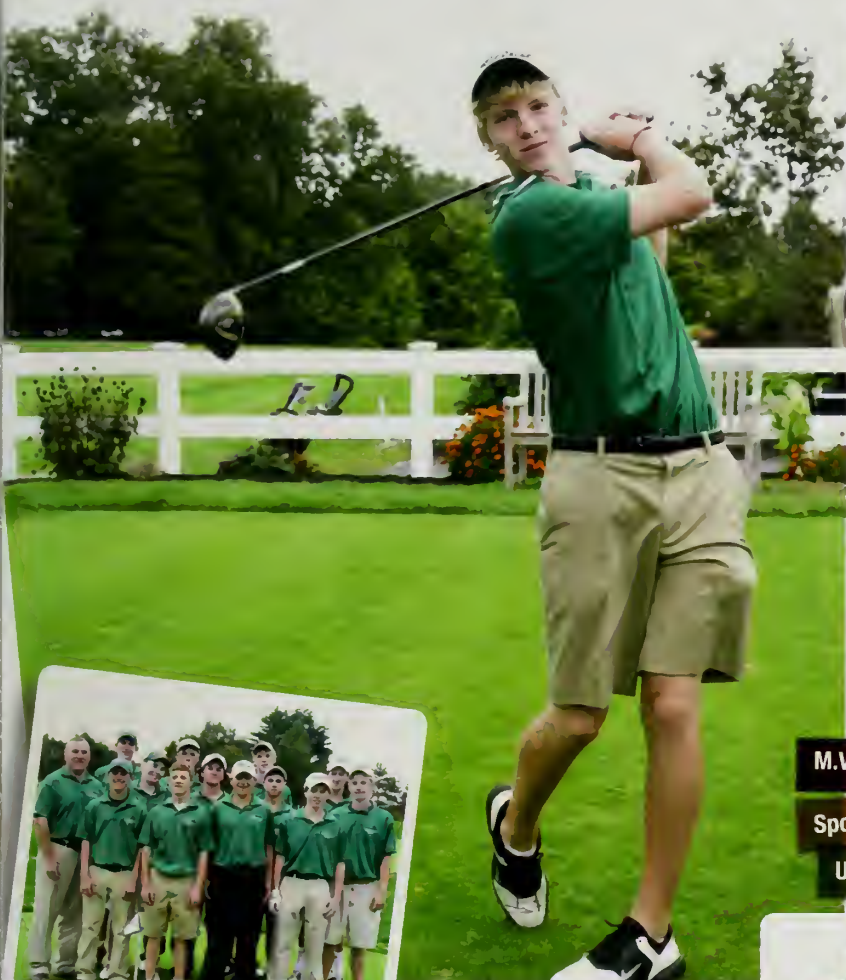

Describe the most memorable match of the season. Our first match was memorable because we beat the reigning TVL champs, Holliston.

What's your favorite memory about the season? My favorite memory of the season was the first annual alternate-shot tournament at the end of the season. Usually when we golf as a team, it's tense because everyone is trying to win their match, but during the tournament, we just went out to enjoy a round of golf and have a good time.

What advice would you offer underclassmen for next season? Work hard over the summer and come into the season prepared to compete for the top spot, no matter who you are.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? It means a lot; I really enjoyed representing Westwood at one of my favorite sports.

Perseverance at Play

Interview with Captains Leah Lessard and Christa DeMovellan

Tell us about a typical practice. Leah Lessard: We do hitting lines and scrimmage. We also practice serving.

Christa DeMovellan: We would warm up by peppering (passing with a partner) and doing a couple sprints, grapevines and shuffles up and down the court, then we'd stretch. Later we would talk and do drills and hitting lines. Practices were always fun and consisted of dancing since the music would always be on.

Are there drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? LL: We like to dance at practice. CD: We hate running. I mean... it's volleyball. We love hitting lines.

Describe a team-bonding activity. LL: "Hey Lotties" on the bus.

What does the day of a game feel like? LL: We always get really excited to play a game. Games are better than practices.

CD: Everyone is usually excited but still nervous.

What are the routines for pre-game? LL: We listen to music and pepper with a partner. CD: iPods on, cheering on the JV team.

Do any individuals on the team have pre-game rituals?

LL: Chrissa and Jing like to rapidly fire the ball at each other to prepare for the game. CD: Jing does homework because she's nuts.

Describe the most memorable game of the season.

CD: Millis, since they have always demolished us, but the second time we played them we won 3-0 and it was the best feeling ever.

What advice would you offer underclassmen for future seasons? LL: Make sure you have fun because that's the most important thing.

Does your team have a team song? If so what is it? LL: 'Jang Jang gettin paid over here' because it's Jing's theme song.

Do you guys have a lucky charm? LL: Christa's mom, Cilla. CD: Our coach gave us these domino pieces that we kept in our bags, and Carol's and my scrunchies were lucky.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you?

CD: It means commitment and pride in your sport and team.

No Hesitation

Interview with Alanna Leahy (C), Riley Cachelin (C), and Andrea Winn

Tell us about a typical practice. AL: A typical practice consists of stretching lines and drills...and brownies, hopefully. AW: Usually we start off with warming up and then we do shuttle lines. Coach Wilson breaks up our practices into two parts: conditioning and drills.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads?

AL: The team loves jump rope races and relay races and dreads the two-mile. AW: It was always a good time doing strokes and trying to be the finalist in the winner's circle. RC: Everyone seems to like quarter football.

Describe a team-bonding activity. AL: Team bonding involves food. AW: Our team did the most team bonding at pasta dinners. RC: Pasta dinners and tie-dying t-shirts.

What does the day of a game feel like? AL: Game day is intense - every game matters and we have to win. If the juniors do the dress up days, it's a success. RC: It depends on the day. It's usually quiet. Everyone prepares for the games in their own ways.

What are the routines for pre-game? AL: Pre-game ritual = WARM FUZZIES and walking off the bus in twos. AW: Before every game we pass around a bag and everyone picks out a "warm fuzzy" to give to a teammate for luck or doing a great job during the game.

Describe the most memorable game of the season.

AW: MEDFIELD. Probably one of the most memorable games ever because we have never beaten Medfield except for this year and we beat them on their home turf...on their senior night!

Do you guys have a lucky charm? AL: Does Anne Lally count as a lucky charm? If not, then warm fuzzies.

What will you miss most? AL: I will miss Wilson's brownies, singing on the bus, and team snuggling. AW: Wilson's brownies, Mollie's Boston accent, SB screaming from the sidelines, Alanna's jokes, Riley's crazy comments and Katie and SB's amazing choreography. RC: My teammates.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? AL: My advice would be to never eat Chipotle the night before a 5am practice at which you will be running two miles. AW: Be willing to put in all your effort for the team and Wilson. RC: Work hard, but have fun.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? AL: Receiving a varsity letter means that you got to participate in highly competitive sports while at the same time learning what it means to be a part of a team. RC: It means hard work and dedication.

Determination

Compiled from Interviews with seniors

Tell us about a typical practice. Stretching, conditioning, individual work with position coaches, installing the game plan with offensive and defensive team, finish with sprints.

Are there particular drills/activities that the team loves? Or dreads? Okies are the best because it is full live hitting. Conditioning with stations is the worst.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Team bonding happens everyday, in the locker room, at practice, before and after games.

What does the day of a game feel like? Like nothing else - it's preparing to go to battle with your best friends. It's nerves, and energy and passion.

Take us through the day...Is there something different during school? Focus is difficult in class and as the game gets closer and closer your energy rises to meet it.

What are the routines for pre-game? We have certain foods, songs, traditions and people we walk next to. We do hand shakes, stretch, hit, and polish up the game plan.

Do any individuals on the team have pre-game rituals? Everybody does, whether it's a certain movie or playlist, and we have little things on the field.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. Battling through injuries and shutting down Norton from the one yard line for a last second win that avenged a loss was pretty special.

What's your favorite memory about the season? Goal line stand at Medfield, Sean's Millis game, Dave's Bellingham game, Brett's one handed TD, Nev's flying sack, Von Euw's game saver, and just spending time with everybody knowing we'll never get this back.

What will you miss most? Friday at 6:45, the anticipation, the first hit, and victories

What advice would you offer underclassmen for future seasons? Lift. Focus. Don't take anything for granted; it'll be over before you know it.

Do you have a team song? "Wavin' Flag" by K'naan.

Do you have a lucky charm? Baskett Island

What does receiving a Varsity letter mean to you? It's a symbol of hard work.

Girls' Cross Country

Endurance

Interview with seniors Nicole Pettit and Yalda Rostamnezhad

Tell us about a typical practice and favorite routines.

NP: We start with a two-lap warm-up, followed by stretches and drills. Depending on the day, we will either do a turnover workout on the track or go on a long run. We always end practice with a short cool down. YR: Our favorite stretch is the L-O-L (leg over leg).

What does the day of the meet feel like? NP: During school, most girls are generally less nervous and are more excited about the spirit day and the anticipation has not quite set in. YR: The hour before the meet is the most nerve-wracking because we are all so nervous about the competition!

What was the most memorable part of the season? The most memorable meet? NP: It is difficult to isolate a single moment that was most memorable because we had such a great season. Probably the Dover-Sherborn meet at home, because it was the seniors' last meet, which was bittersweet, but almost every member of the team had a PR that day!

What will you miss most? What advice do you have for underclassmen for future seasons? YR: I will miss the girls so much! I'm going to miss the long talks during runs, and all the inside jokes. They're my favorite group of girls and we became so close that it's going to be hard to leave them! NP: The thing I will miss most about cross-country is the team itself. It's more like a family and I'll miss the positive energy and environment at practices and meets. My advice to underclassmen would be no matter what your skill level is, give every practice and meet all you have. The motivation and dedication that you put into cross-country will manifest itself in your performance. Most importantly, use your teammates for advice and inspiration and have fun!

Do you have a team song? A lucky charm? YR: We like "Waka Waka" by Shakira, any song that we can put Xiao's name into, and anything that we all know the words to! A lot of Taylor Swift! Sometimes we mix it up with gospel music!

Tell us about your ideas for spirit days. NP: We had some obscure spirit days, such as saran wrap day and egg day. They simply come from the imaginations and craziness of every girl on the team!

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? NP: To me, a varsity letter is recognition of the hard work you put into the season. Every girl who gets one should truly appreciate what it means and realize that her determination and effort is rewarded!

Going the Distance

Interview with Captains Patrick Sleight & Patrick O'Donnell

Tell us about a typical practice. PS: We either do an intense workout on the track to work on our speed, or a long run to build up our mileage. PO: Most days we run about seven miles with a lot of drills. Usually every weekend we have a long run (10-15 miles).

Are there particular drills/activities which the team loves? ... dreads? PO: I would say an activity that the team always looks forward to is foam-rolling after our workouts. It helps us feel better. PS: We all pretty much dread all workouts.

Describe a team-bonding activity. PO: What's most memorable is our pre-season camping trip to New Hampshire. We spent two days getting in some solid running and team bonding time. We all enjoyed it and it is something that has helped us become a closer team. Other team bonding activities include the typical pasta dinners and ultimate frisbee.

What does the day of a meet feel like? PS: Meet days are pretty exciting because we've had such a strong team this year and it's always cool to see who is improving week to week. Brakke's short-shorts get the team pumped for the afternoon's race. PO: When we have a meet, that's the main thing we think about all day. We all want to run fast for ourselves, and more importantly, for the team, so we just stay positive and excited to race.

What are the pre-meet routines? PS: Warm-up, then drills, then race, then varsity does a workout on the track. PO: We start with a 10-15 minute warm-up run, then, a set of drills/stretches. At the starting line, we run some strides and pump ourselves up.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. PS: Holliston was a great meet. We opened our season with a competitive team and we came out on top. Our success at Holliston was an accomplishment and a harbinger for the great season to come. PO: We had so many great meets and such a successful season. I personally think our TVL Championship race was a great race. We battled with our rivals, Medfield, and our two schools dominated the meet. Unfortunately, we were bested by 5 points and got second place. Also, our division state class meet was awesome because we qualified for the All-State meet as a team.

What advice would you offer underclassmen for future seasons? PS: Run over the summer, otherwise you'll vomit for the whole first week of practice. PO: If you train well, you can achieve big things.

Do you guys have any lucky charms? PS: our lucky charm is Jess. She's our motivator and can outrun most of us. PO: Our coach started a tradition of giving out a Hot Wheels car named "The enforcer" to whomever he believed stepped up and raced exceptionally well for a meet.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? PO: To all us varsity letter winners, it means we are the ones that other people on the team look up to. It is a nice reward to those who put in the hard work and train.

Motivation in Motion

Interview with Captains Annie Shea and Jessica Burns

Tell us about a typical practice. AS: We start with a 400 or 600 then we will do a set that consists of different strokes like butterfly or freestyle - overall, we swim 5000 - 1200 a practice.

Are there particular activities the team loves? Or dreads?

AS: We love water polo (though it's rare.) We love starts and turns and we dread 21 club and distance swimming.

Describe a team-bonding activity. AS: We go to Papa Gino's after meets. JB: We bond with pasta dinners and our dress up days.

What does the day of a meet feel like? AS: We are nervous and excited because we want to take home another win. JB: It's excitement and fun. You get nervous and it builds up to the second you get on the block, and then you swim your heart out. Afterward you're relieved that you're done.

Take me through the day... Is there something different during school? AS: We have crazy spirit days and sing "All I Want For Christmas is You" by Mariah Carey.

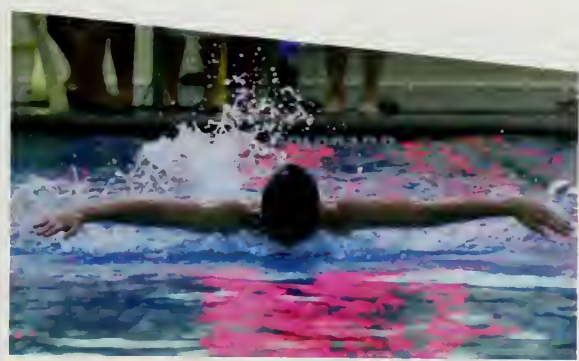

Do any individuals on the team have pre-meet rituals? AS: The bus rides are our time to get pumped up and happy and excited. JB: On the bus we are singing like crazy and this brings the group all together.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. Why was it memorable? AS: Seekonk, because it was the first win we pulled away with in a few years. JB: When we won against Seekonk, it was unusual; it was the first time in six or so years.

What will you miss most? What advice would you offer underclassmen? AS: I'll miss the friendly team atmosphere, the closeness and bonding. For the underclassmen- be outgoing, don't be shy. JB: I'll miss the people on the team, the support system, and being in the best shape of my life. My advice is don't be afraid to talk - speak up!

Do you guys have a lucky charm? JB: Our pig named Gai. What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? AS: It means that you are part of a team and have accomplished goals that you wanted to achieve during the season. JB: Accomplishment for all the hard work and reward for success.

Showing our Spirit

Interview with Captains Maria Georgaklis & Jennifer Beggan

Tell us about a typical practice. MG: We typically meet at the track for a warm up lap and a lot of stretching. Then we work on the competition routine. We start off with warm up stunts and go through all the tumbling and jumps. After everyone is warmed up, we'll do the routine full-out a couple of times. We'll usually focus on one aspect of the routine to perfect. At the end of practice we will sometimes condition or play "lifeboat" where groups do the routine and the rest of the team critiques.

Are there particular drills/activities which the team loves? ... dreads? JB: the team has a love hate relationship with "running snakes". MG: The team loves wall sits and planks. The team doesn't really like snakes when we run up and down all of the mats multiple times in groups.

Describe a team-bonding activity. JB: Pasta dinners and bus rides are great for team bonding. We also really love going to Friendly's after games; it's become a tradition!

What does the day of a game feel like? MG: The day of the game is the best feeling. Everyone gets so excited and pumped to cheer. Everyone is always in a really good mood and is really energetic. At school on Fridays, we hang up a banner we make for that night's game.

Do any individuals on the team have pre-game rituals? JB: The team has a pow wow before every half time. Maria and I give a pep talk and break out on "fight" to continue previous years' traditions.

Describe the most memorable part of your season. MG: Competitions! Competitions are like a really big game for cheerleaders, in a way. It's always the best time.

What's your favorite memory about the season? MG: My favorite memory of the season is Cheer Camp. We got to bond with all different cheer teams, and got to cheer all day. It's always the highlight of the season. JB: At Cheer Camp we all got really close and worked together as a team.

What will you miss most? MG: I'm definitely going to miss the games the most. I don't think there's anything better than cheering on the sidelines at a Friday night game. I'll miss the half time routines and pep rallies and practice everyday after school. I really don't think there's anything that I won't miss about cheering for WHS.

What advice would you offer underclassmen for future seasons? JB: Go to captains' practices to learn sidelines, and be on time! MG: Enjoy every moment of cheering and always try your hardest.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? MG: I think receiving a varsity letter shows all the work you put into your sport.

Interview with Shane Troy and Myles McDonough

Tell us about a typical practice. ST: Everyday we head out on the bus to Ski Ward in Shrewsbury. It's a 45-minute drive, so we usually bring some beats.

Are there particular drills/activities which the team dreads?

ST: Everyone dreads pulling the course. Nobody wants to freeze anymore than necessary. MM: The team enjoys just practicing for races and skiing with each other because it's fun doing something you love with others who feel the same way. Before the snow falls, we all dread dryland training practice, preparing for the season.

Are there particular activities which the team loves? ST: We love meets at either Blue Hills or Ski Ward. Everyone comes to cheer each other on.

How does the team bond? MM: Our main team bonding activity would definitely be just riding the bus to either practices or the races. We all talk and have a good time.

What does the day of a meet feel like? ST: Everyone is a little nervous, but no one is willing to admit it. MM: The day of a race is just like any other day. It really comes down to the individual and what they might do in the start just before they are to ski down the course. We tend to stay relaxed and enjoy ourselves, there is not much stress.

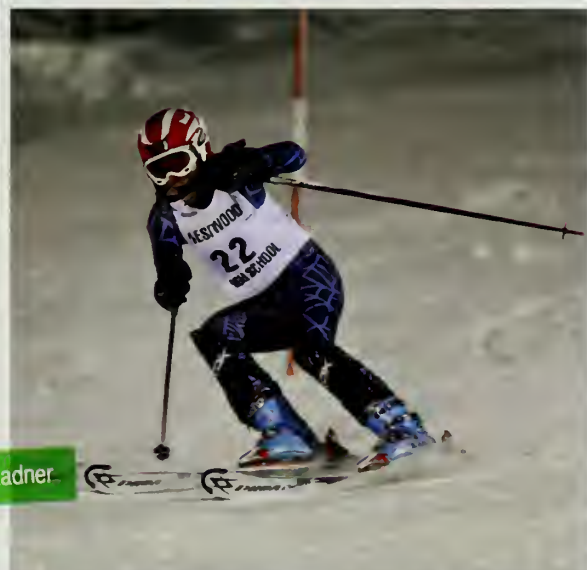

Do any individuals on the team have pre-meet rituals? ST: Patrick Frodigh always texts one certain friend and C.J. Hunter combs his mullet.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. Why was it memorable? One G.S. race at Blue Hills, a kid flew through the finish and went straight into the safety netting. Also, States at Berkshire East. MM: The most memorable race and time of the season would have to be the last one (the last one ever for the seniors). Also, having Nicky qualify in the very last race for States was a great surprise and we were all very happy for him.

What will you miss most? ST: Frodigh's memorable quotes. C.J.'s flow and Brodsky's presence. MM: I'll miss racing since I'll never again be able to the way I did when I was in high school.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? ST: Dryland training is really hard, so get ready to work. MM: They should just enjoy it while it lasts because it goes by quickly.

Rapid Relay

Interview with Alison Campion and Nora Smith

Tell us about a typical practice. NS: First we do warm up laps - usually 2-3 - then drills and stretching. Practices vary a lot, but usually end with the girls lifting weights in the weight room or doing abs out on the field.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves?

Or dreads? AC: Everyone loves stretching circles and long slow distance runs where we can relax and talk. We always dread the sprinting workouts though.

Describe a team-bonding activity. AC: This year we did a Yankee swap with the distance team so that everyone could get to know each other. NS: We did manage to do a few pasta dinners at Papa Ginos.

What does the day of a meet feel like? NS: Meet days are full of excitement when we dress up for spirit days!

Are there pre-meet routines? AC: Everyone has her own pre-race rituals. Each girl does something to get focused.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season.

AC: The TVL meet at Reggie Lewis was very exciting. For the first time in living memory, we were trying to beat Hopkinton, so every race was really intense. Even though we ended up coming in second, we came closer to first than we ever have before. NS: The All-State meet was also memorable for the girls who ran the 4x800m relay. We came in 8th place, and broke the school record.

What will you miss most? AC: We'll definitely miss each other the most. Track has made us really close with girls we might not have been friends with otherwise.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you?

AC: A varsity letter means you're committed to the team and you work hard not only for your individual success but also for the success of the team.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? AC:

I know it's hard to go out in the freezing cold everyday for runs, but track is worth it. NS: My advice is just to stick with it because in the long run it's truly awesome.

Acceleration

Interview with Patrick O'Donnell, Matt Jessup, Erik Brakke, and Kyle Fedorowicz

Tell us about a typical practice. A typical practice for varsity involves a run that is about 7 miles. We have long runs that can add up to 14 miles sometimes, too. We also have a lot of grueling workouts on the track that usually put us on the ground afterwards.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? One drill the team really loves is foam rolling. Also barefoot running is popular.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Team dinners (usually at Bertucci's) are a good team bonding activity. Occasional Taco Bell runs also bring the team together. Ultimate frisbee with the team is also a good bonding experience.

What does the day of a meet feel like? On the day of a meet everyone makes sure they are hydrated and ready to go. It's the biggest focus of the day for us. We make sure to eat well also. Pre-game routines involve a team warm-up but everyone has their own individual routines.

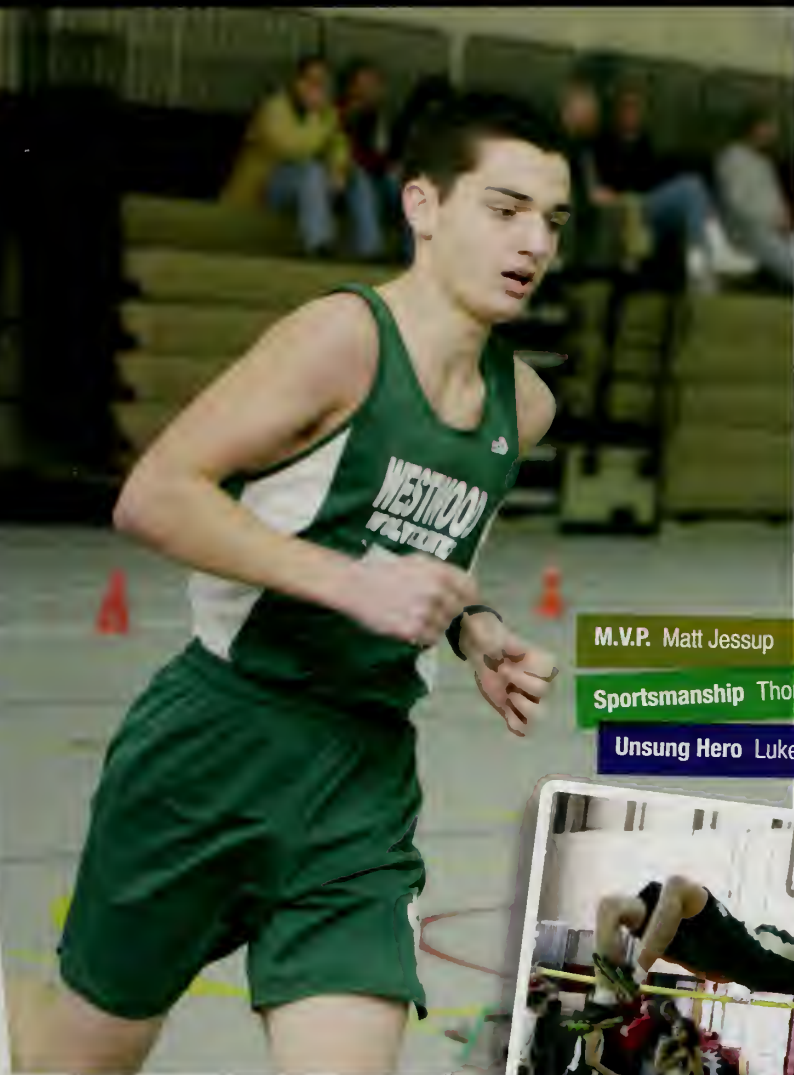

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The TVL championship meet was awesome because we had numerous athletes run personal bests and place very high. We managed to win the 300m, 600m, 1000m, and 2 mile and break some league records in the process. Also the National championship in New York was a great experience, although we had an unfortunate event in our race (getting cut-off and tripping while running). But I think the 4x800 relay team would have to say that the all-state championship meet was the most incredible experience for us, as we won and smashed the meet record by 4 seconds.

What will you miss most? I think the seniors will miss their teammates the most. We'll also miss running at Reggie Lewis Center.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? To underclassmen, if you take the sport seriously and listen to your coach, teammates, and body, and as long as you are dedicated and work hard, you will see great results. It is awesome to be part of a successful team and to contribute as much as you can.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? Getting a Varsity letter is something every athlete on the team should strive for. It symbolizes significant contributions to the team. People with varsity letters are the core athletes who have helped our team become successful.

Momentum

Boys Swim Interview with Dylan Nanna and Julian Zamudio

Tell us about a typical practice. JZ: Our typical practice is very organized. We do 500s in the beginning, and sets of different strokes to exercise different muscles. Every friday we have a game day.

Describe a team-bonding activity. DN: Going out to eat after a meet, and playing water polo on fridays. JZ: Doing our team cheers and we bond a lot at our daily practices.

What does the day of a meet feel like? JZ: At first it's like an adrenaline rush. When you get in the water you feel an intensity from the competitiveness, but you're also relaxed because you feel so comfortable in the water. It a crazy feeling.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. DN: We had a few meets that were very close. Some came down to the last event so they were pretty memorable. JZ: The final meet where one of our teammates accidently forgot to swim his event. It was so funny because the coach didn't even notice until the team told her. Her expression was priceless.

What's your favorite memory about the season? JZ: Definitely the meets. They make you feel like a completely different person because you surpass your limits, and you feel proud of yourself when you succeed.

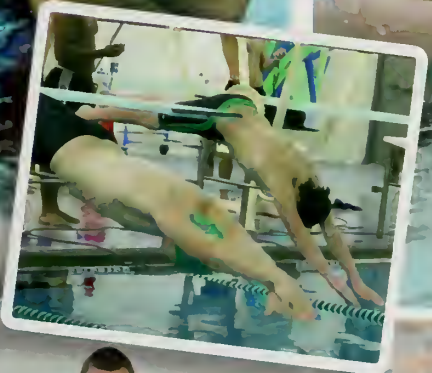

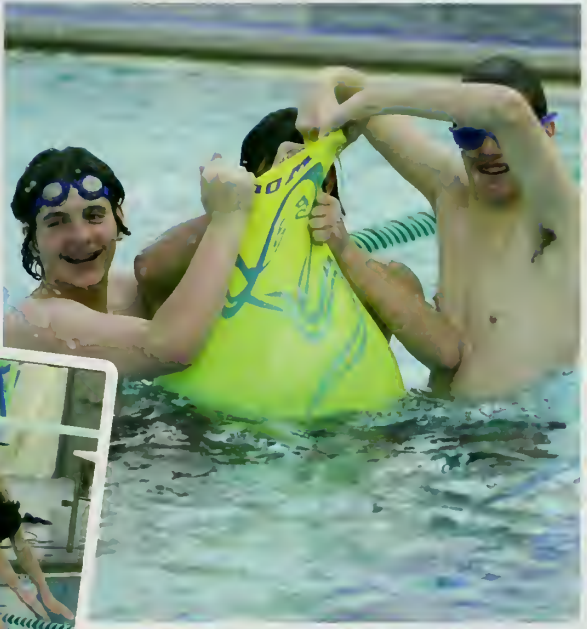

What advice would you offer underclassmen? JZ: Do your best, win the meets, but also just have a great time.

Do you guys have a lucky charm? DN: We have a green suit jacket that the captains pass down each year.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? DN: I've gotten a letter every year from swimming so it was pretty important to get another one this year. JZ: I get them every year, but every time I receive it, I just feel proud.

One word or phrase that represents the sport/season? JZ: Endurance. It's all about endurance.

Interview with Christopher Treon, Conor Murphy, and Brett Egizi

Describe a team-bonding activity. Some typical team-bonding activities are when we all go out to Murph's for breakfast after 5am practices, going to Captain's practices, and going to Taco Bell.

What does the day of a game feel like? Game day is always very exciting and highly anticipated. Team members go out of their way in the halls to shake hands and make sure others are mentally prepared. We all just try to get really pumped.

What are the routines for pre-game? Brendan Skehill and Andreas Nicolos always tape up their hockey sticks before every game.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The playoff game against Scituate was the most memorable game of our season. So many fans came to cheer us on. It was awesome. Also, the game at Gallo Arena was great with Stones saving us the shoot out.

Do you have a lucky charm? Yes, Coach's green corduroys!

What will you miss most? Being on the team with kids that are not just our teammates, but also our good friends.

What advice would you offer underclassmen?

No matter what happens on or off the ice, just work hard and keep your chin up, don't take any shift for granted.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you?

A varsity letter means you're a part of the team and you set an example for younger players.

Describe a favorite memory of the season. It's really just too hard to pick a favorite memory. We loved all of the time that we spent together during this season.

What is a typical spirit day? On spirit days we wear our comfortable green jump suits.

Powerful Play

Interview with Gabbie Giugliano

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? We love "Mr. Holthouse's circle drill" and hate the "snake drill" and break-outs.

Describe a team-bonding activity. When we went down to Martha's Vineyard for a game our ferry and game got cancelled! So instead we all slept over at a teammate's house and we all had so much fun together.

Is there something different during school after practice? You're definitely very tired. Hockey is a huge commitment and waking up early before school means you need to be really good with getting your homework done quickly after school and getting to bed.

What are the routines for pre-game? A lot of us have rituals that we do before the games for good luck. We always have music in the locker room to get pumped up. Sometimes we listen to the inspirational speech from the movie "Any Given Sunday".

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The most memorable game was when we tied the undefeated team. This game was a morale booster and everyone was really excited.

What's your favorite memory about the season? My favorite memory was the morning we all woke up early and had practice, only to find out it was a snow day. Another of my favorite memories was getting our superlatives at the hockey banquet. This was great because we got to show our quirky sides and how well we know each other.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? I'd tell them to get ahead of their school work whenever possible because it will help you out when you have to get up early for practice. Also, work hard because the line ups will always change.

Where do you get your ideas for spirit days? Our ideas for spirit days generally come from within the group. Every year Heather Sullivan tries to suggest having "injury day."

Do you guys have a lucky charm? Our team's lucky charm is a plastic duck named Waffles.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? It means recognition for your determination, skill, and commitment to the sport.

Bringing the Heat

Interview with senior Nick Post

Are there particular drills/activities that the team loves? Or dreads? Our team enjoyed the fast break progression but dreaded the drills at the beginning of practice because on our bad days, when we weren't focused, those were the drills that caused us to run the most. It made practice more exhausting then it could have been.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Our team bonded by making fun of Coach St. Martin with his slicked back hair, visor, and crazy stories and, also, by making fun of Coach Walsh's crocs and Coach Norman's weird hat.

What does the day of a game feel like? Game days consisted of nervousness and excitement. Everyone had their routines that eased the nervousness and eventually it was just pure excitement that filled the locker room.

What are the routines for pre-game? The only pre-game rituals that occurred were Subway and D&G trips a couple of hours before the games.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The most memorable game was probably the away Millis game. We struggled the whole game, just trying to stay in reach. We were working hard but things just weren't going our way. Eventually we got back to playing "Westwood basketball." It didn't matter that we were down by eight with a minute left in the fourth. Millis had no chance of stopping us. They did their trick play but we just countered it by pounding the ball inside to Mike "Michelin man" Keane and kicking it out to all of our shooters. We got into overtime because Macston hit a lucky three over three defenders (how average, Mac). In overtime they couldn't handle us, and we came away with the most exciting victory of the season.

What will you miss most? We seniors will miss the joking around as a team and the responsibility of leading the underclassmen.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? To the underclassmen: don't leave anything to chance; make sure you leave a good mark on the program; and remember, "There are a lot of woods in Maine, brother."

Interview with Erin Young and Molly McLaughlin

Tell us about a typical practice. We usually start with a warm up drill, stretch for a while, and Kanee tells us the things that make us smile. Then, we usually do a really long layup drill, work on plays, and get ready for the upcoming game.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? We love 3, 2, 1 halfcourt shots and Bentley passing.

We dread the three man weave box out and the 40 in a row layup drill.

Describe a team-bonding activity. We love going to Out-back after games or just to see Patty. We went bowling with the coaches, which was a lot of fun, and we have potlucks after Friday night games.

What does the day of a game feel like? We are always really excited for game days because we can finally show, and put to use, what we have learned in practice. Although we didn't have the most successful record this year we worked hard in all the games and played to our fullest potential.

Take us through the day. We typically have a spirit day in school and then come to the gym early to cheer on our girls' junior varsity team with their game. We do our pre-game rituals and get ready to play.

What are the routines for pre-game? We sit in the locker room and Ms. Bognanno talks to us about the strategy for the game. Then someone on the team does an "inspiration" and we start our other routines. We have individual routines and team routines. In the locker room, we do some handshakes and then sing "Ain't No Mountain High Enough." After we get out of the locker room, we breathe, dance a little, and sing some more. Erin gives everyone a high-five, then we do a clapping thing and then we run out for our warm up.

Interview with Shayan Salam and Stephen Campion

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? The team loves foam rolling, but the team hates 50x100, and 50x200.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Some of our team-bonding activities are foam rolling, doing core exercises, and going camping.

What does the day of a meet feel like? It basically feels like any other day. Some people run laps before the meet in order to calm their nerves. Also, drinking a bottle of water every block helps out a lot because it keeps you hydrated for the meet.

What are the routines before the meet? We tend to do a lot of warm up drills.

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. The most memorable meet was All-States because Matt Jessup performed incredibly in the 800m.

Do you guys have a lucky charm?

Yes, OD (Patrick O'Donnell) is our lucky charm.

Where do the ideas for spirit days come from?

Usually our ideas for spirit days come from Erik Brakke, mostly we wear our uniforms.

What will you miss most? We'll miss the teamwork and being in really good shape. I'll miss the free food at the concession stand after home meets.

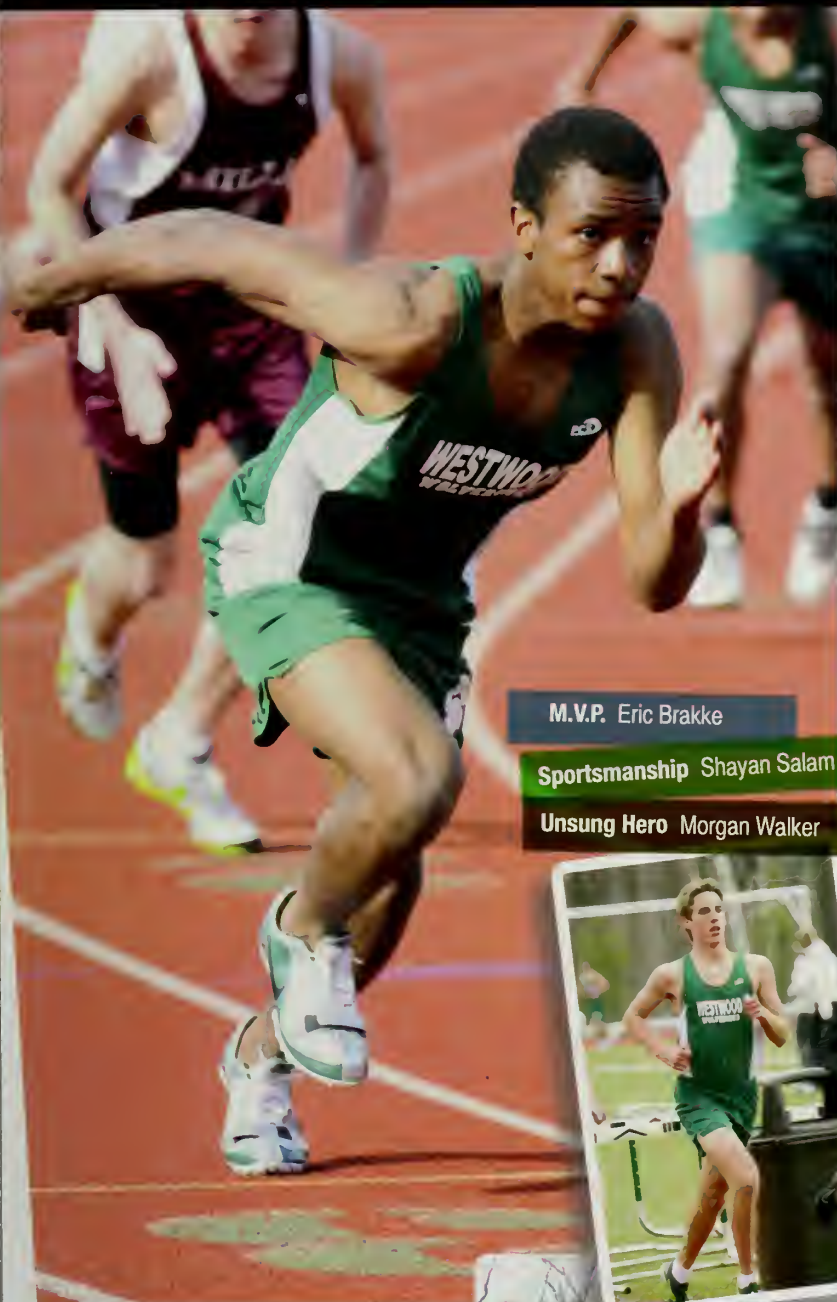

What advice would you offer to underclassmen?

I would say that they should always train hard, both on and off season.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you?

It means that my performance helped the team win some meets, which was important.

Strong

Interview with Caitlin Adamakis, Keelin Henderson, Leah Schroeder, and Dani Kessler

Describe a typical practice. CA and KH: As throwers, we start with warm-up laps and do some dynamic stretching. Afterwards we usually have core or legs circuit and then we go to our throwing events. DK: For sprinters, practices vary, but typically we start off with a few warm up laps and then abs and push up circuits.

Activities the team loves or dreads? CA and KH: People usually hate the core workouts and the circuit training but enjoy throwing. LS: We dread hills! We love zen runs which are just super slow and conversational. DK: Flying 50's are probably the best type of workout. The worst is a long ladder, when we do repeat 400s.

Team Bonding Activities? LS: Stretching is a team bonding activity! We sit in a circle and talk about our days. DK: One was our t-shirt signing spirit day. Everyone was running around school in our white t-shirts and getting people to sign in sharpie. It was awesome!

Describe the most memorable meet of the season. DK: Our meet against Bellingham. It was a home meet, and we crushed them.

What was your favorite memory of the season? LS: My favorite memories about the season are of the friendships that I've developed. Track has the potential to be a very individual sport but if you only focus on your own success, you miss out on a lot of good times.

Seniors, what will you miss the most? KH: Everything from the team - the coaches, my friends, fun practices and especially throwing javelin. LS: I will miss the team, the friendships, being crazy and loud, and the coaches.

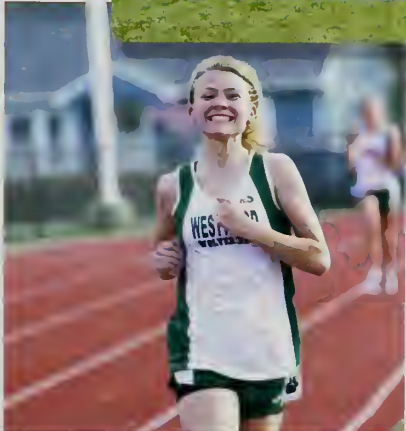

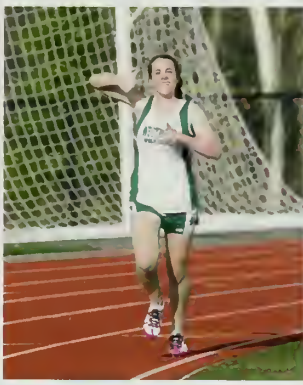

What advice would you offer underclassmen? LS: I would say to have fun and keep your head up. Don't lose sight of your goals, or the big picture. And drop the arms and go! DK: For future seasons, it is extremely important for underclassmen to not underestimate track because it is challenging, rewarding, and SO MUCH FUN! Trying your best is extremely important, because it does not only contribute to your personal times, but it also helps your team.

What does receiving a Varsity Letter mean to you? KH: It means that everything you have put into reaching your goals, whether it be practicing or extra hours lifting, really paid off. LS: Receiving a varsity letter means contributing to the team in a considerable way. Whether it be points or an outstanding attitude, it means you bring something to the team.

Relentless Start to Finish

Interview with Sarah Biron and Anne Lally

Tell us about a typical practice.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? Our favorite drills are double healix, 3v3 in the circle, goalie wars, and competitions. We dread sprinting 300's and the full field clearing drill.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Our favorite team bonding experiences have been pasta dinners, the trip to Syracuse, the UMass trip, the BC versus BU game, and going out to dinner together at Fire and Ice.

What does the day of a game feel like? The day of a game feels very intense and we try to get each other really pumped up. During school we write fun notes to each other, decorate lockers, and have fun themed spirit days.

What are the routines for pre-game? One of our pre-game rituals is doing arm swag during agilities.

Describe the most memorable game of the season (so far). Our most memorable game would definitely be beating Lincoln-Sudbury by a ton!

Do you guys have a lucky charm? We have a lucky charm which is actually a charm that says LUCKY on it!

What will you miss most? What we will miss most as seniors will be all of the awesome underclassmen, our coach Leslie, long runs, rolling the dice, and white vs green competitions.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? Some advice we would offer underclassmen for future seasons would be to be relentless, go hard or go home, and leave it all on the field.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? Receiving a Varsity Letter means a lot because it shows how much work and dedication you have put in to achieving your goals.

Interview with Sean Condrick, Mike Filbin, David Von Euw and Chris Annis

Tell us about a typical practice. DV: We warm up, stretch, and play 6 on 6 scrimmages. Also, we split into defense and offense positions and do specifics drills.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves?

Or dreads? SC: 1v1 and scrimmaging are some popular drills, conditioning is the only part of practice that people don't like that much. CA: Sprints are the worst part, especially when the losers at games have to run sprints afterwards.

Describe a team-bonding activity. SC: The team usually bonds the most when we chill together, especially at pasta dinners.

What does the day of a game feel like? DV: Game days in school are always a good time. We like to throw each other the star trek symbol to get fired up, and our emotional leader, Pat Walsh, gets everyone super pumped up.

What are the routines for pre-game? CA: Some of the team members wear eye black and we blast music from an ipod in the locker room and on the bus.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. MF: The most memorable game of the season was against Holliston at Flahive under the lights. We beat Holliston for the first time in Westwood varsity boys' history. On top of that, our victory put us into the state tournament, which knocked Holliston out.

Do you guys have a lucky charm? MF: Our lucky charm is Brendan Dalton's flow.

What will you miss most? DV: The seniors will miss the pasta dinners, the bus rides and coach Z. CA: I'll miss hanging out with the team the most since we became really close with each other.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? DV: Work hard and always make sure you train during the off season because it is the deciding factor.

Girls' Tennis

Conditioned to Win

Interview with Kelley Steeves and Andrea Winn

Tell us about a typical practice. Our practices are split into two parts. First we go for a run, as a team, and do a lot of sprints at the multi-purpose field. We then hit the tennis courts where we do challenge matches and drills. Typically you will hear the word KNIFE! yelled across the courts and Melanie spontaneously singing.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads?

We love the buh-bye drill. I think Houston gets more out of it, but it's still really fun. We don't particularly enjoy the running aspect, but it keeps us in good shape.

Describe a team-bonding activity. Two of our team bonding activities are our trips to Bubbling Brook and our pasta dinners (though instead of pasta, we eat lots of Mexican food).

What does the day of a match feel like? On match days, sometimes we do spirit days, but it's really not different from any other day. If we're playing a tough team like Medfield, everyone gets hyped up.

What are the routines for pre-match? When we get out on the courts, we split up singles and doubles and we do our own thing, like groundstrokes, volleys and serves.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The most memorable match of the season was probably our first of the season against Holliston. We have a lot of young players on the team and for us to beat Holliston 5-0 was pretty awesome.

Do you guys have a lucky charm? Our lucky charm is definitely Otis, but sharing a bus with the freshmen boys' baseball team is also lucky.

What will you miss most? I think that we will really miss everything about the team. We all share a close bond and have had so many laughs and memories with the whole team. We will sincerely miss singing on the bus with everyone to the "Chacarron Macarron" and "Take You to Rio!"

What advice would you offer underclassmen? Come into the season in shape and ready to play! Be sure to be outgoing - it'll get you far!

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? Receiving a varsity letter means that you have truly accomplished something. You have taken your talent to the next level. Once you have that letter in your hand, you have a strong sense of pride.

Tenacity on the Court

Interview with Matt Levine, Josh Goldberg, Believe Opara and Hani Singer

Describe a typical practice.

When we warm up, we do laps and lots of stretching. We also do suicides and drills like moving up and down the "ladder."

Activities the team loves? Activities the team dreads?

We hate suicides and bunny hops around the world.

What are your team bonding activities?

We bond when the team goes to Subway to eat. We have pasta dinners too, and we bond on the long bus rides to matches.

What does match day feel like?

We are in anticipation for the "war" of tennis. We get really pumped. We also high five in the hallways.

What was the most memorable match of the season?

Hopkington was a memorable match for us. We all played well.

What's your favorite memory of the season?

Our favorite memories are the Walk for Hunger and our pasta dinners. Also, our last home match was a good memory, even though we lost.

As a senior what will you miss about the sport?

We will miss all of the good times with Mr. Dolleman because he is a motivator and gets us pumped up.

What advice would you offer underclassmen?

Win the meets, and practice!

Team song?

Our team songs were the "Space Jam" theme song and various techno bangers.

Teamwork In Action

Interview with Rachel Masotta and Leigha Valentine

Tell us about a typical practice. We start by running laps, then throw with partners. Then we go into our outfield and infield positions and do some plays, switching positions so everyone gets to practice.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves?

Or dreads? Yes, I hate setting up the machines for batting. Also, we line up at every base, so that each person gets to play each positions.

Describe a team-bonding activity. We go out to dinner a lot, especially to Bubbling Brook. The team has been amazing this season on and off the softball field, we've grown into a family.

What does the day of a game feel like? Everyone is a lot more focused, and we tend to high five each other in the halls to make everyone less nervous. Game days are exciting and full of energy. We do spirit days and pictures in front of my locker.

What are the routines for pre-game? We always take pictures at Leigha's locker. Also, Joanne always has to be the one to get the first ball, or then the whole game is messed up.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. It was actually this Wednesday (May 25th) against Medway because we made it in the tournament.

Do you guys have a lucky charm? Sort of. Before a game someone has to pick a quote and cut it into strips. Then we all read it and tuck it into our socks.

What will you miss most? I'll miss everything! The game, team, and coaches; especially because I won't be playing in college.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? I would say that they should work together and be close with each other because it is a team sport.

What does receiving a varsity letter mean to you? It makes me feel proud and accomplished to have reached a new level in the sport that I love.

Interview with senior Will Smith

Tell us about a typical practice. A typical practice consists of us stretching, sprinting and working the field. We also practice batting and try to make practice as much like a game as possible.

Are there particular drills/activities the team loves? Or dreads? We like batting practice because it's fun and more relaxing compared to fielding, which we do not like because it is tedious.

Describe a team-bonding activity. We had a lot of fun when we went out to eat at Jake and Joes. We also bonded at Murph's, but generally we bond through practice and hanging out together on the weekends.

What does the day of a game feel like?

Whenever we have a game it always seems that we're so excited for the games that we cannot focus on anything else, (which makes it tough in school).

What are the routines for pre-game? When we travel for away games we always sit in the same seats with someone and eat snacks.

Describe the most memorable game of the season. The most memorable game was against Holliston because we beat them at their home field at night. But, the best memory was against Norwell when Posty got his first hit.

Does your team have a team song? Our team song is "Give Me Everything" by Pitbull.

What advice would you offer underclassmen? My advice for underclassmen is to work hard and be committed to the team and giving your all...oh, and don't listen to forest.

Encounters with the Arts

The Visual and Performing Arts Departments co-hosted Encounters with the Arts, an annual showcase of student work. The evening had a festival feel, with a huge variety of activities, performances, and exhibits, throughout the Arts Wing, from which visitors could choose. Student groups from classes such as Chorus, Orchestra, and Drama presented energetic pieces. Extracurricular music groups, including Passing Notes and Jazz Band, performed, as did student led groups like "Haley and the Bones". The corridors and art studios were transformed into galleries for work from all visual art classes. Seven upperclassmen exhibited their portfolios and responded to visitors' questions at "Meet the Artist". Digital Photography students offered "Fun Family Portraits", with prints to take home and many arts students led interactive art-making activities. The "cherry on the sundae" for the evening was Project Empty Bowls, a fundraiser by the Tri-M Honor Society and the Visual Arts Department. For a small donation, guests got to enjoy ice cream sundaes and take home a hand-made bowl. The event raised nearly $1000 for the Greater Boston Food Bank.

Arabian Nights

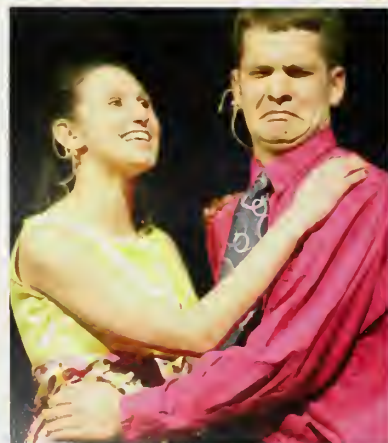

The caliph Shahryar responds to his wife's betrayal by killing her. Each night thereafter he marries a girl in the village only to kill her in the morning. When the young Scheherezade is chosen to be his bride she relies on her storytelling skills to save not only her own life, but to save and heal Shahryar. This story of love, loss, and redemption took the stage for this year's fall play, The Arabian Nights. Written by Mary Zimmerman, who according to many cast members is actually a god, the play was a touching combination of heartfelt, reflective, and comical tales. The ensemble cast, in beautiful Arab costumes, created a world in which the whim of the caliph could spell doom. Utilizing Zimmerman's words the cast took the audience on a journey that won't soon be forgotten.

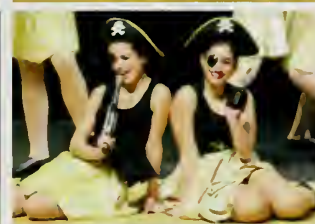

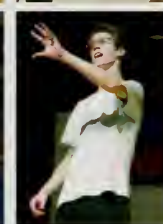

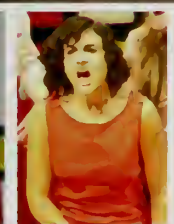

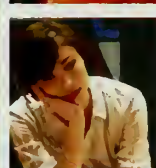

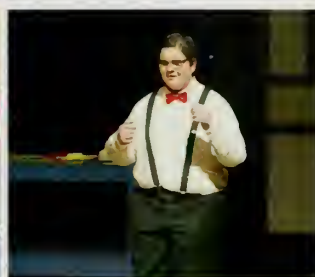

How ^{to} succeed in Business without really trying

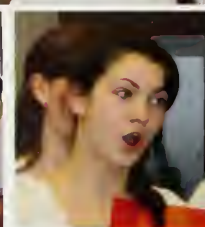

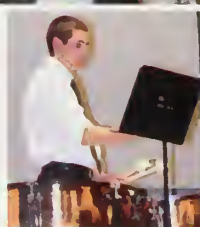

With an explosion of energy and color, this year's musical captivated audiences for four nights in March. From fumbling bosses, conniving nephews, and dancing executives, 'How to' was a hit. There were great gags and laughs, but the heart of the show was an adorable love story that had everyone rooting for the couple to end up together (as if there were any doubt they would!) Highlights from the show included the songs Coffee Break, with hilarious twitchy choreography, showing how we all break down without our caffeine fix, and the show-stopping number, Brotherhood of Man. Stellar performances left audiences wanting more.

Music

Finely Tuned

Throughout the year, the Performing Arts Department presents concerts to showcase the hard work and talent of students in music classes and extracurricular groups. Students in music courses - Chorus, Orchestra, Concert Band, and Wind Ensemble - perform to demonstrate their achievements at numerous events including The Winter Concert and The Pops Concert. These student groups perform for their families and other community members in the evening concerts and for their peers during school assemblies. Highlights of this year include Concert Band's sensational medley of songs from "Chicago", and the rousing rendition of Green Day's "21 Guns" by the Combined Band and Chorus.

I will always cherish my memories created in an out of school as a student at WHS. Though I was an avid trend setter, I always felt like a fit in the social community and I really enjoyed my experience. Thank you to all my friends I have made and kept along the way. I will never forget you or any of the hilarious and wonderful times we have shared.

Stephen Campion

It's amazing to see how far we have all come over the past four years. In retrospect, I view each academic year as another chapter of our four-year journey together at WHS. As we conclude our final chapter, we wonder where we will go from here. Whatever the future holds, we will follow unique paths and face new challenges at every turn. Above all, we will never forget all the good times we have had at Westwood High School and all the memories we share. Thank you, Class of 2011, for making our green years shine.

I had such a great time at WHS! I met a lot of great teachers and kids. I participated in two activities; the now extinct Chess Club and Robotics. Thomas McNulty and I would go once a week to an empty math classroom and play chess. There were only two occasions when someone else showed up... whoever you were thank you. Robotics was a blast! I would like to thank the jokers for all the funny moments they made possible. Everything from putting "Ethan Dolleman" on the attendance list for a substitute, to making me say funny things while sitting on the hood of Mike Ventura's car (thank you John Abi-Elias).

Caitlin DeLorey

On the first day of Freshman Year, I walked up and down the halls attempting to find the direction of my classes. I remember worrying that my high school experience would be like my first day, not knowing where to go and what to expect. With school activities and with great friends along the way, I began to feel like I belonged at WHS, and I was happy to be a part of the community here. When I look back, I want to remember high school as a time where I realized the person I want to be.

Samantha DeTore

The past four years I have spent in Westwood have flown by. Because of my experiences here, I have learned so much about myself and about who I want to continue to be in the future. There were many ups and downs, but I would never change a thing about my time here. I have changed for the better because of Westwood. Thank you to my family, friends, Dr. Brody and Ms. Cataldo, and all my teachers, especially Dr. Zarrow, for watching me and helping me grow these last four years. "The only thing constant in life is change."

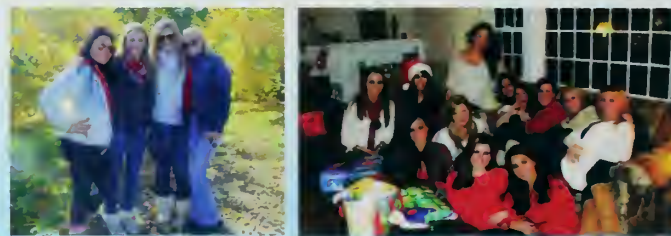

John Delsignore

I thoroughly enjoyed my two years at Westwood High. I am grateful for my experiences on the Golf, Track, and Baseball teams as well as the Ultimate Frisbee Club. Muffin Town and Bagel Central will always be my "guilty secrets".

Amanda Diulis

I'm overall happy with everything I got to do at WHS. I loved spending time with my friends and am glad I had a good group to support me, laugh with me and share high school with me. I will remember high school as long, stressful but overall a good time. The only thing I would change during my high school experience is to not stress the little things so much and learn how to forgive and forget a little better. I hope people remember me as someone who was a good friend and had the ability to brighten up someone's day. As much as I couldn't wait for my final days of high school, I think I'll be able to look back and miss WHS.

It has been good, and times has gone really fast. Thanks to all the friends other homies- You know who my friends are in Westwood High School. Excluding the fact that Westwood town is bit boring, it had been very peaceful, except I lived in a house that is not peaceful for 4 years. There are lots of memories, but if I have to choose one, well this is really obvious thing, but I will just say it. The one thing that I will definitely remember, is that Edward J. Han is SUPREME.

Elise Harrington

Being a student at Westwood High School has been quite the experience for me. One of my favorite memories of Westwood High school was the trip to Quebec my French class went on when I was a junior. I also enjoyed the prom and all the good times with my friends. I have met so many new people here, both seniors and underclassmen. And I have learned so many great skills. I have enjoyed my stay here, however I am ready to move on and start the next chapter in my life.

Nicholas Hawes

Kids Got No Kick, Wild Man, All-State's for Cross Country, the Magic Woods, and the pyramids on top of PJ's desk.

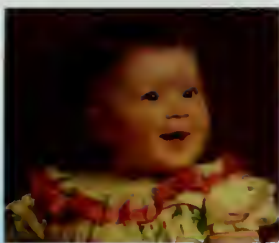

Keelin Henderson

Although high school is coming to an end, I will always remember: xc is sexc, marcel the shell with shoes on, thatcher every day, cats, BSATPLAC, Ain't No Mountain High Enough, post parties, near death experiences with the javelin, Boothie, smurfs, breakfasts at Murphs, Fantasia on the Dargason, room C, Doug, obsession with music, hide and go seek, manhunt, night sledding. It's scary to think that it's almost over, but with the endless support of my family and friends I can leave high school with unforgettable memories and the knowledge that I enjoyed every minute of it.

Over these past four years here, I would like to give my thanks. Thank you for being my sister, mother, and best friend. Thank you for your friendship these past years and more to come. Thank you for all of the inside jokes we no longer remember. Thank you for encouraging me continuously during class. "It well may be that we will never meet again, in this lifetime, so let me say before we part, so much of me, is made of what I learned from you, you'll be with me, like a handprint on my heart..."

Jacob Indursky

Dave Maher Freshman Squad--Leibson's buzzer beater, picking locks, and beating Medfield. The corner in AP Euro was the best part of sophomore year. Best sleepovers with rockband, halo, and throwing old meat at houses, always with the third random kid. Junior year was East Dedham forever. Tucc and Dahl were my 2 am boys. Samp is life. Grounded for Summer 10. Everybody's a debate team captain. FIFA and chillin after school. I love you Leibson, you'll be my boy forever.

Hey, wassup Westwood!!! I had a nice experience at this high school. I enjoyed each and every moment of it. I'm going to miss all the fun times I had with my friends. From goofing around in free blocks to making my friends/teachers laugh in all my different classes. I want to say thanks a lot to all my teachers who were there for me from the beginning to the end< and thanks to all my friends for being there when i needed a shoulder to lean on.....Love You guys!!! Off to College :-)

Alexandra Jackson

I have made so many amazing friends during my four years at WHS and will miss them all so much. I will always remember Friday night sleepovers with Mary, Elena and Eliza. Musicals: Brigadoon, Evita, How to Succeed--cast bonding and all my favorite underclassmen <3. Kaja. Puerto Rico. Skiing. The chorus room. Secret Santa's. Late night talks on skype and long car rides. Thank you to my friends and family for always supporting me. I love you guys!

There's no way four years can be summed up in a box, so I'm not even going to try.

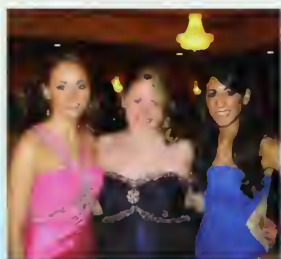

Ellen Kunkel

The past four years have been amazing and went by too quickly. I will never forget all the lifers, games of pass the marker in the little theater (WAFER!), prom, BST, fun food Fridays, Olivia & my 16th birthday party, hallway laps in the morning, teen center dances, Spain, and of course all the amazing theater productions including Evita and Bngadoon. To all my friends, thank you for being crazy and making me laugh all throughout high school. I'm going to miss you all!

Katelyn Keane

I'm going to miss swim team and pasta dinners and Kate sing 'American Honey' I'll miss hanging out with Maria all the time and being part of her family since we don't have friends and babysitting with you since you like children. I'll miss sitting in your room watching the 'Euro Training' episode of my wife and kids which we still laugh at... I will miss working at the pool with Erin and making bracelets in the rec van while Sean and Maura decide if we should take 95 North or 95 South. And I will miss making smores with Kate.

Beverly Kwong

Saturday sessions, Halloween fiasco, the free corner, French class family, "the life of pogace", GUISHI AND NANAI, Ani's cookies, breaking cameras, WELCOME TO AMERICA, LA KLAUDIAA, why is bev on the floor? There are memories that will be in my heart forever I just can't think of them right now. My friends mean the world to me even though I don't always get to be with them. To Ailyn, Andrea, Ani, and Klaudia I love you guys so much. Thanks for being there for me and there will never be a second of my life next year when I won't be thinking of you. BAK I GOT YOUR BACK<3

Brianna King

I did my first play ever at WHS and I've loved being on stage ever since. I really found a home with theater, and that is what I'll remember most, because I've met some of the most amazing, caring, talented people through it. I blinked and now I'm there.

Maria Laham

Starting as a new student last year, I thought it was going to be hard but with all of the great people that surrounded me it was such a blast! Everyday brought a new memory and I'm going to miss everyone! Jessie, Jess, and Jacinta, you helped me through so much! love you girls!

Kenneth Long

It may be a little cliché and cheesy, but I honestly am glad for meeting the people I have met at WHS. Chemistry class was fun helping each other on the homework and joking around, even playing BS during lab blocks. I've had a great time sharing inside jokes with friends and meeting a few new people during these four years.

When I first began my high school journey I assumed the worst. I never thought that I would have such great moments; moments like when my whole cafeteria table started yelling about babies with rabies. I'll never forget the look Mr. Mao gave us. I never thought that I would meet so many great friends, whether they would be older than me, or younger than me. I'll always remember walking through the halls and seeing all the different colored hair that my friends had. But, after making it through the journey, I will always look back on it fondly.

SWAMPY, STINK; some of the various words chich and I came up with: All things that I will remember forever

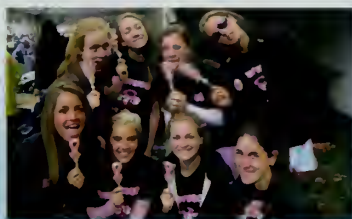

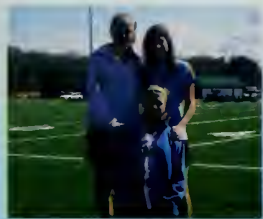

Michael McNulty

I participated in track, soccer, and tennis. My most significant memories are: as a freshman the good times in Ms. Plunkett's class, as a sophomore getting a point in the 800 m race, as a junior a year dedicated to hard work, and as a senior year finally being done with high school. It was a good time.

The last four years at Westwood High have been great. I'm a proud bubula from AP Chem sophomore year. French last year was awesome, and the Quebec trip was unforgettable. Good times in bridge building 2010. Taking a trolley to junior prom was classic. Meeting Areg's dad after competition last year scared me forever. I "guess" the four hour trip to the MFA to get two pictures was fun, but I'm fairly confident that a mole of ping pong balls would be enough to fill the library. Don't stop chrono-boosting that microwave, and always remember: $2 + 2 = 5$

I'll never forget the four years I spent at Westwood High. My friends mean the world to me; we have had too many good memories to count: Crystals, paneras, hanging out at alannas, and making are weekly trip to tjs. My friends have made my time here the most memorable times of my life. Thanks to my best friends NM and AL for always being there for me. "What you do with your life is just one-half of the equation more importantly it's who you're with when you're doing it"-DS

Steven O'Leary

To be honest I don't want to be remembered in any particular way because everyone has a different opinion of me. I am who I am and I say what I feel, and if you care, you don't matter. My friends, and those who don't care are the ones who really matter. I'm going to miss all the fun, and all of the good times with my friends over these past four years. I hope you all had as much fun as I have, and I wish you luck for the future.

so the point of this whole expression thing is to sum up all 4 years of high school in 100 words...it's not possible, because there were good times and horrible times. good times like Baylor's stats class and Daniels' science class back in freshman year. there were also some gross times, like English class last year, i will never forget...good luck to everyone graduating and going out to the real world.

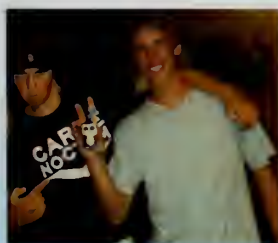

Believe Opara

I demand nothing extraordinary from my legacy at Westwood High School. It was an interesting ride; I learned, I struggled, and I grew. I just hope I'm remebered as that chill kid in the halls and nothing more.

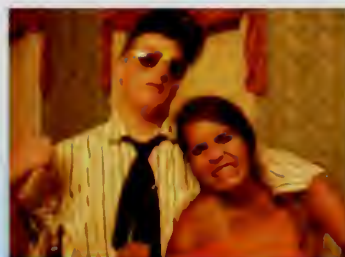

Patrick O'Donnell

I will miss my cross country and track teammates, the xc all states and camping trip with the team, TVL championships, Kan jam and frisbee games, Hurley's basement, those halo nights, Jake and Amir, golfing with old business books, Take me away Dave Darell remix, A Thousand miles, Darius & Finlay, Call on me, age of empires against Shayan, Snatch vs Cool Runnings, Kfed and his boat, fireballs with Steven, NH trips, and reflecting with Shayan over what just happened.

Samuel Pease

Westwood High has been great. I'll never forget Quebec and wattattatau, chipotle burritos with Mr. Schwanbeck, the field of dreams also known as french 5 with Ms. Aykarian, naked people in french movies, Roger et Igor, gefilte fish with Ms. Felton, baseball at Martha Jones and homeruns, furberopoly, Prom '10 and I'm sure Prom '11 will be great too. Going to college will be great but I'll miss everyone so much. Success is right around the corner for all of us. I've got stacks like the international house of pancakes.

Some people come into our lives and quickly go, but some stay for a while, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same. Always remember that the times you enjoyed wasting, were never wasted. To my sistas from another mista: FD.CD.LP.LV.LR.MM.SK.NP.AO.SC.SM.SH.AJ.JA. you are truly a good time. To my brothers from anotha motha: AA.CM.NP.CT.MS.OW much love. Be the change you want to see in the world because obstacles are put in our way to see if we really want to reach our goals.

WHS has been a memorable place for my teenage years. I think what I will miss most are all the bonds I have made with my swim girls, and high jumpers. Some WHS moments I will always remember are Schwanbeck's F block class, and always sitting in the same spot at the cafeteria. People who have been important to me are all of my teachers throughout the four years I have been here because they taught me not to give up and to work hard for what I want to achieve. I want people to remember me as a funny, outgoing, friendly person, with many goals and good ideas. I will remember my time at WHS as an important part of my adolescence where I became a young woman. I will always remember the friendships that I have made here.

I will certainly miss high school, my friends more than anything else, the good times we had, the dry spells, hanging out in basements, backseats, backyards, and beaches, New Years mishaps, Halloween '10, football games, XC, track meets, the ski bus, junior year driving adventures, awkward cape visits, awkward touches, and awkward words French class antics, France '11, making plans in A Block free, anatomy, doing no work F block, senioritis (starting freshman year), studio art madness, A121, and everything else. The possibilities are limitless from here: do work and keep in touch.

Marina Shkuratov

High school was a crazy, stressful, dramatic, chaotic, hilarious, wonderful mess. It seemed to drag on forever, and then it suddenly flew by. Over the course of my four years at Westwood High, I have made countless memories, not all of them nerdy, that I know will stay with me for the rest of my life. My amazing friends and the moments I've shared with them will remain a part of me even after the graduation date I thought would never come. And...I guess I learned some math and stuff.

Halloween 2009, car rides, cape trips, concerts, 5 wits, football games, and hanging out with friends were some of my favorite memories from high school. My friends and family have been important to me throughout high school and I couldn't have done it without them. Mississippi and track have been fun to take part in and I was able to meet so many people from participating. WHS has been rewarding and I'll miss it but I can't wait until college starts!

High school, yesterday it started and today it ended. Yea it was that fast. I will miss the wonderful staff that guided me through high school during the good times and the bad. I thank them very much for helping me get to where I am today. Who knew that today would be 2011? Who knew that today a new chapter begins as I start my college life? Nonetheless no matter where I go Westwood High will always be my home and my Westwood friends will never be forgotten.

I will always remember DJing with Matt Hurley and Matt "DangerUS" Levine through the years. Sophomore year XC was awesome. I'll never forget all the good times we had that spring with borealis and Birdman. Junior year tennis was a great time and I'm sure this year will be too. Playing Ultimate Frisbee, Volleyball, Basketball, Badminton, and Kan-Jam with the guys during summers was always fun. Spain was unreal and I hope we can all go again together sometime. Hockey has been great the past four years. Good luck to everyone in for years to come.

There are so many things I could put down here I don't even know how to start. I will always remember Sparky and Fergie theme songs and the swim soundtrack, Mrs. Dore's AP Euro test brownies, Sr. Kelly and la rana, wasted free time in the project lab, AP Lit theme parties, and the joint-custody baby doll. Good times.....The End. P.S. Mr. Holthouse, I promise to go into a profession that involves math or science, NASCAR is just glorified traffic, and Spanish is NOT useless.

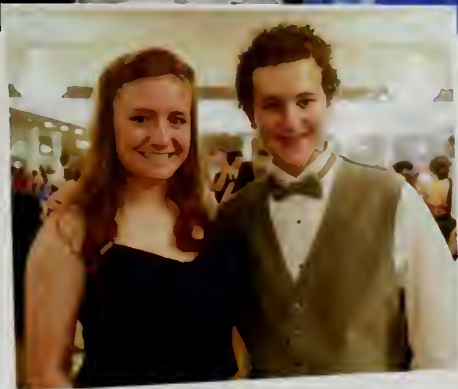

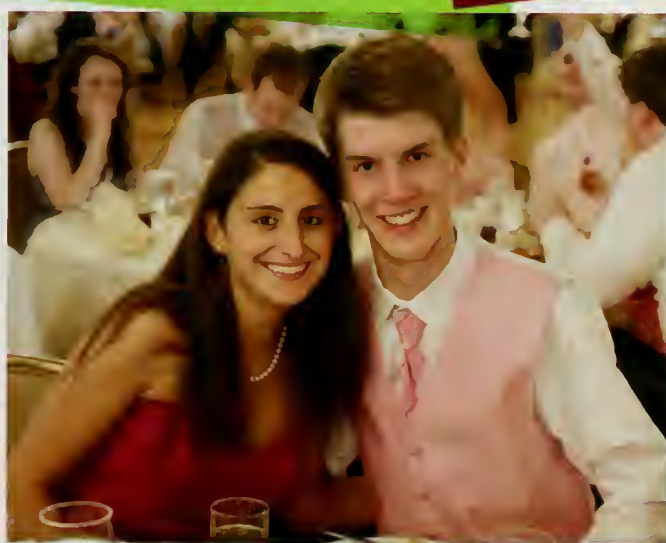

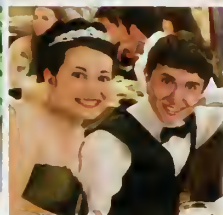

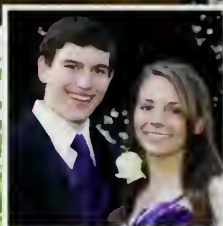

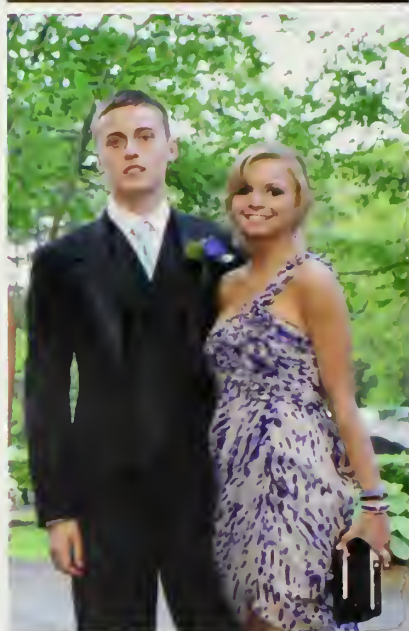

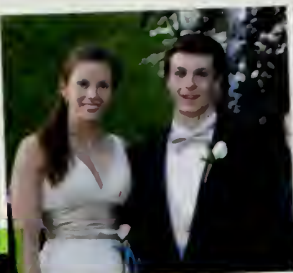

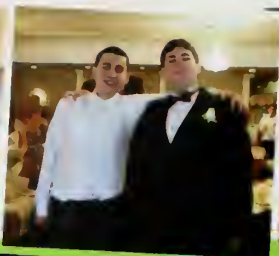

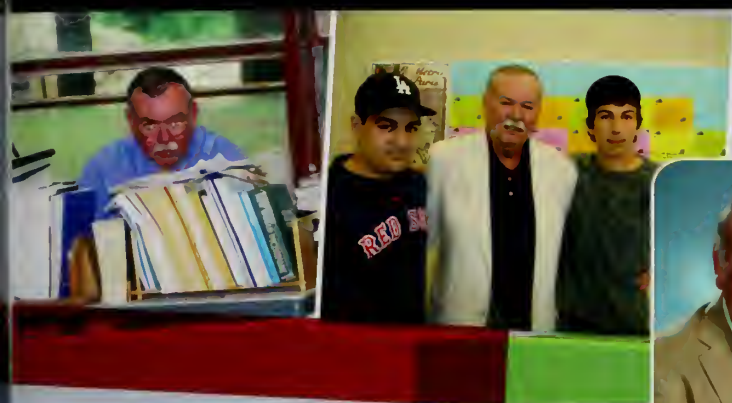

From

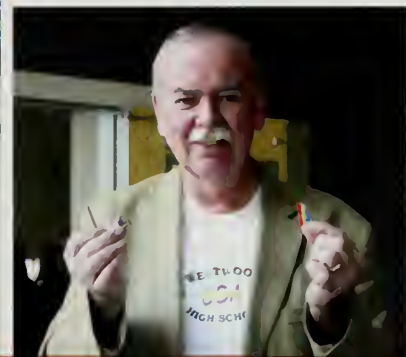

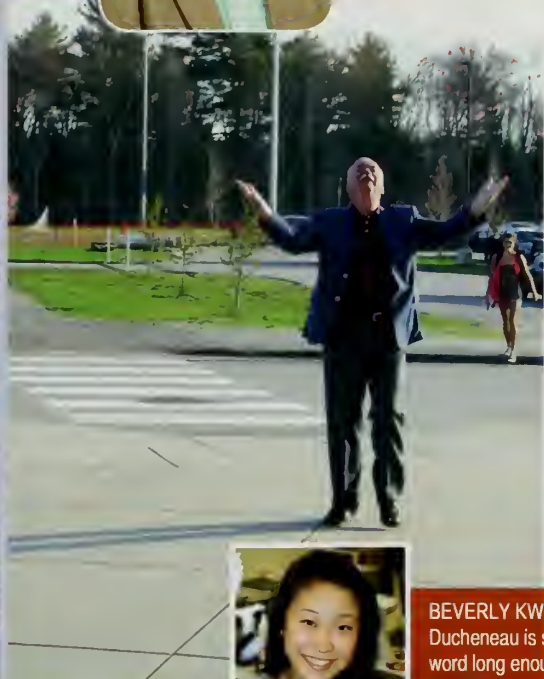

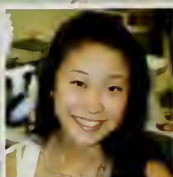

Thanks To Mr. Ducheneau

Mr. Ducheneau - Thank you for dedicating 39 years to Westwood High School. We appreciate your generous spirit and genuine caring for our community. Whether as our Spanish or French teacher, our driving instructor, our class adviser and prom coordinator, or our morning greeter in the parking lot, you have made our time at WHS more enjoyable. Thank you for all you have given us. We wish you much happiness in your retirement.

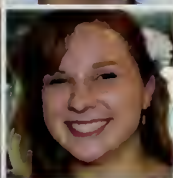

BEVERLY KWONG: "One word I would use to describe Monsieur Ducheneau is supercalifragilisticexpialidocious. There isn't a word long enough, or more expressive, that could describe his personality or the things he does for Westwood High. I'm going to miss you next year!"

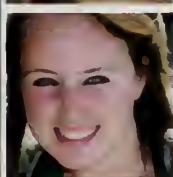

MIKE CICERONE: "Mr. Ducheneau delivers so much to Westwood High School and really makes it feel like a family."

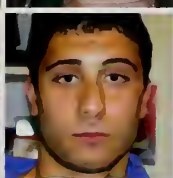

JESSICA BERRY: "Mr. Ducheneau brings a smile to my face every morning as he says, "hola" once I get out of my car. It takes a special person to bring happiness to a bunch of teenagers in the morning."

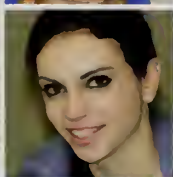

CALLA TIBERI: "Mr. Ducheneau, you were such a great teacher, from E block Spanish, to driving hours, you made my time at Westwood High School so much fun. I don't know what we are going to do without you!"

NIMA RAHIMI: "Mr. Ducheneau is the best person to do driving hours with ever. I really enjoy his company."

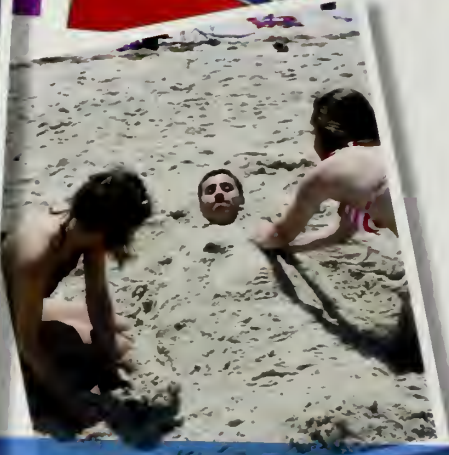

JENNA LAUNIE: "Mr. Ducheneau - I loved Spanish class with you. I learned so much and had a lot of fun. I'm going to miss your "holas" in the parking lot and I hope you come to visit."

ASMANI ADHAV: "He always left a smile on my face and made sure we always knew what was going on with Boston sports."

Senior Cruise

Decked out in semi-formal wear, the Class of 2011 set sail on the elegant "Spirit of Boston". As the boat toured Boston Harbor, the class enjoyed the buffet, and then hit the dance floor where Adam Shipp's moves wowed the crowd. Towards the end of the cruise, the yearbook staff announced the results of the class vote for senior superlatives (both serious and silly) to much applause and laughter.

Josh Babbinn

Josh,
There is no need to reach high for the stars.
They are already within you- just reach deep into yourself.
We are so proud of the man you have become and all you have accomplished.
We love you!!!
Mom, Dad, and Katie

Louie,
Be a simple kind of man.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Jessica

DONOVAN

Jessica,
Your mother and I are so very proud of the beautiful and intelligent young women you have become.
Now it's off to your next adventure in life, college.
We know that you will take full advantage of what Trinity has to offer.
Congratulations!
Mom & Dad

If you can dream - and not make your dreams your master;
If you can think- and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;

Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son!

- R. Kipling

"A bird doesn't sing because it has an answer, it sings because it has a song" -Maya Angelou

Dear Alex...

We have loved watching each phase of your symphony unfold as you grow into a beautiful young woman who truly gets the meaning of life. You exhibit that through your warm heart, your kindness, and concern for others, your love of life and its music, and your commitment to learning. We are so proud of you and excited to share in your continued success and happiness. Congratulations to the Class of 2011.

We love you,
Mom and Dad
& all your extended family

Katie Ginsberg

"Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover." - Mark Twain

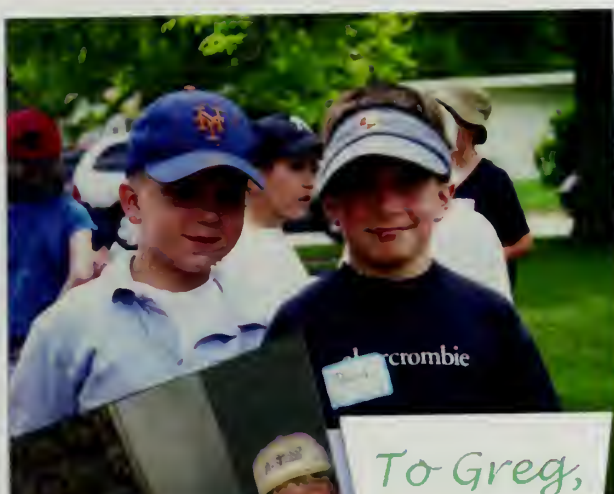

Samantha,
We are so proud of you and all you have achieved. These 18 years have flown by. Our house will be very quiet without your outgoing personality and spirit.

Your trips to Spain and Oxford are just the beginning of the wonderful journey life has in store for you. Live it to the fullest. We'll always be here to anchor you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Ian

Francesca

DEBENEDICTIS

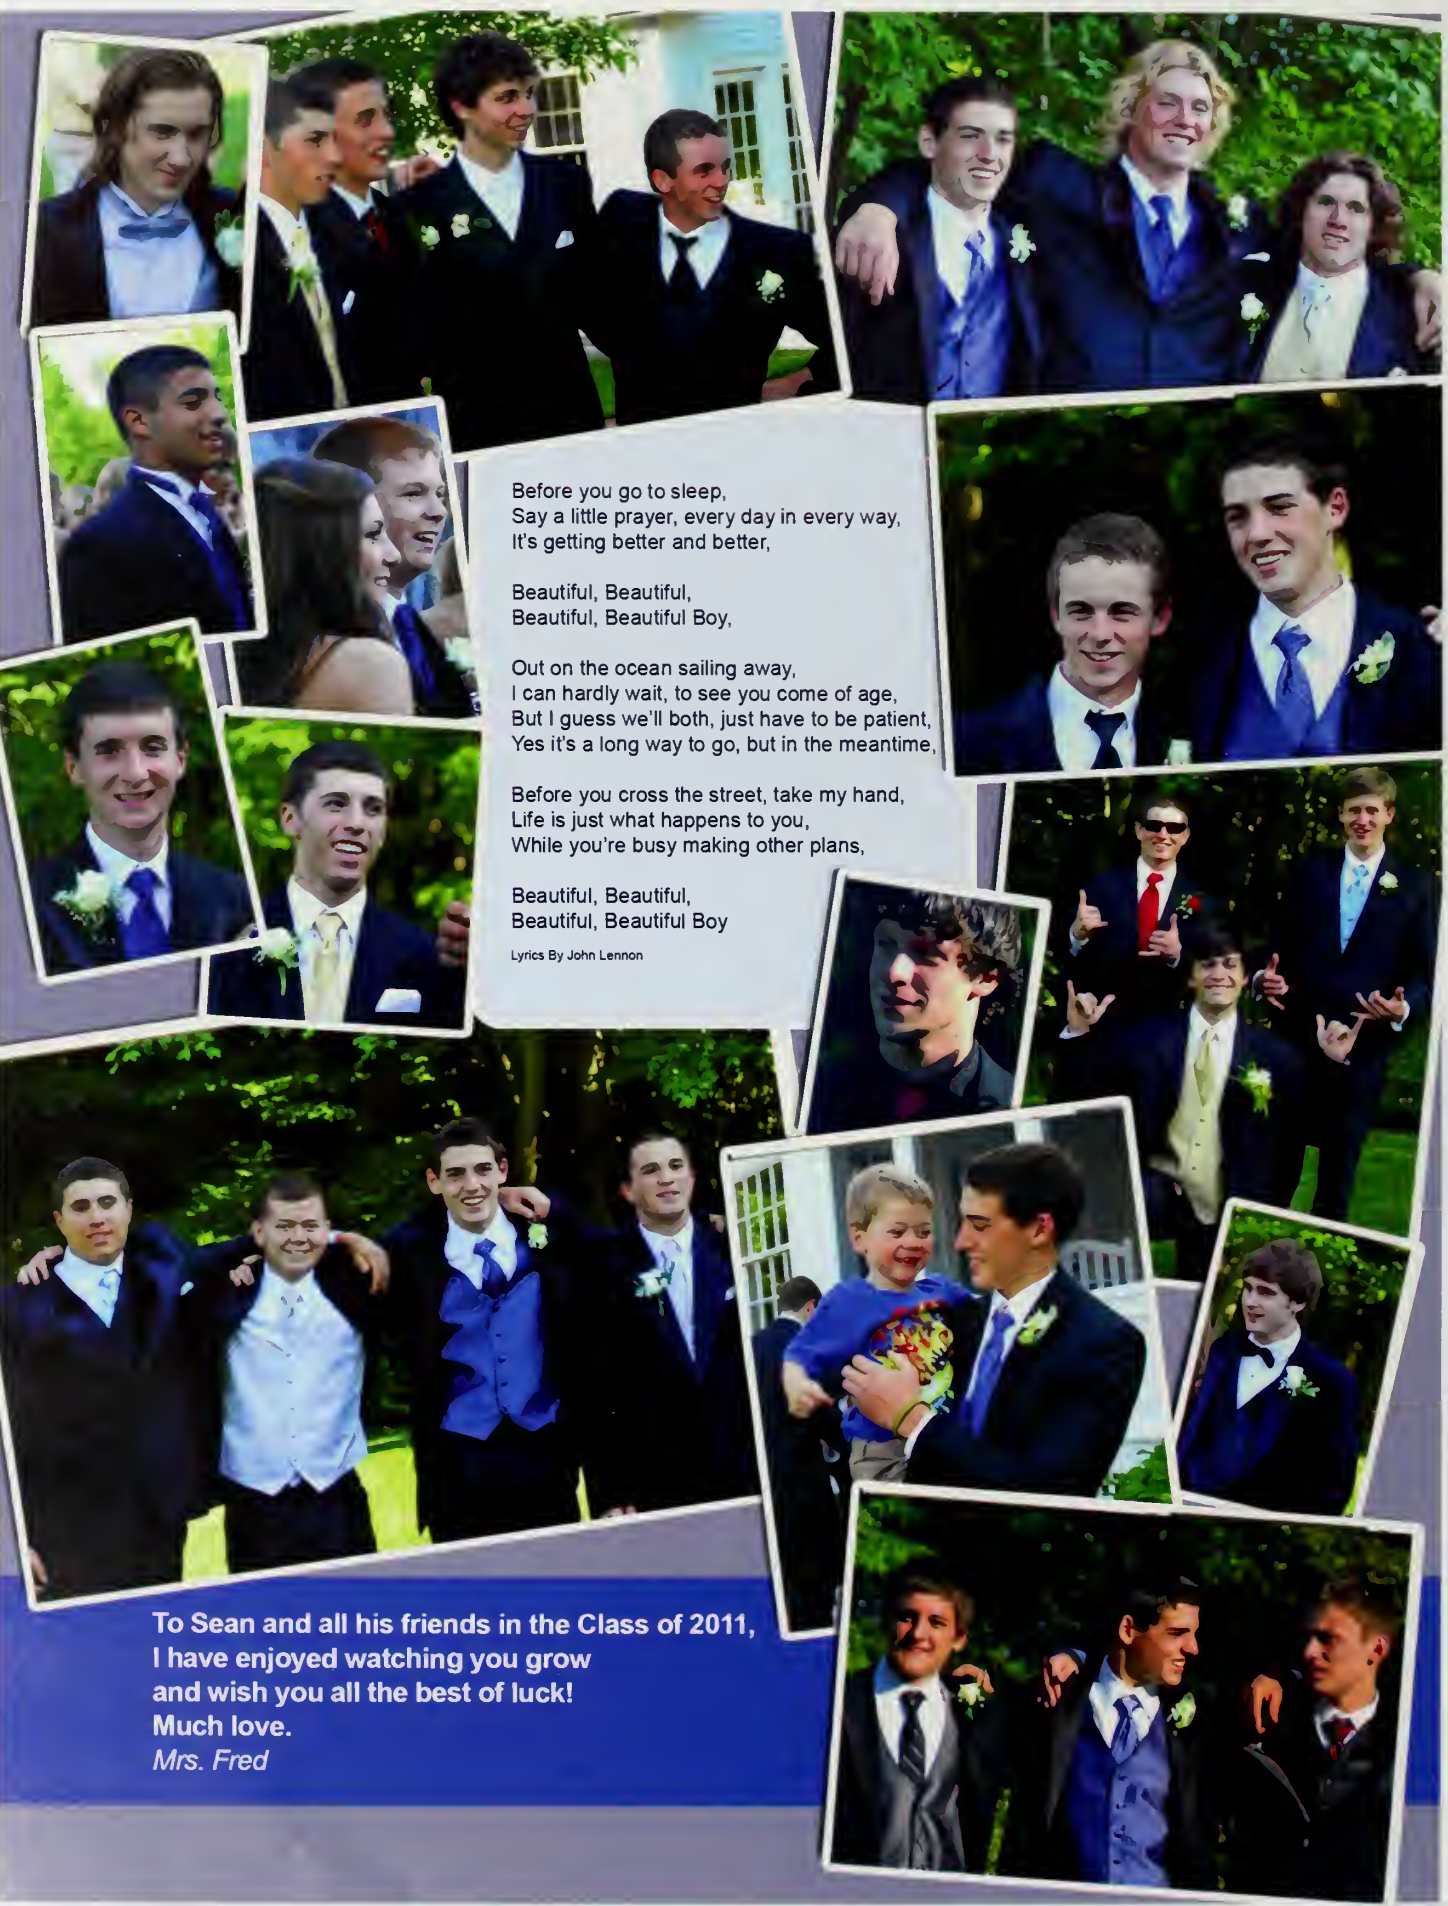

You have given us a lifetime of wonderful memories. May there be many more for us to share.

Set your goals high and never stop striving!

With all our love,
Your families

Before you go to sleep,
Say a little prayer, every day in every way,
It's getting better and better,

Beautiful, Beautiful,
Beautiful, Beautiful Boy,

Out on the ocean sailing away,
I can hardly wait, to see you come of age,
But I guess we'll both, just have to be patient,
Yes it's a long way to go, but in the meantime,

Before you cross the street, take my hand,
Life is just what happens to you,
While you're busy making other plans,

Beautiful, Beautiful,
Beautiful, Beautiful Boy

Lyrics By John Lennon

To Sean and all his friends in the Class of 2011,
I have enjoyed watching you grow and wish you all the best of luck!
Much love.
Mrs. Fred
